

AL. SMITH HITS THE FARM PROGRAM OF THE NEW DEALERS

"Colossal Flop," Former Democratic Governor Tells Phila. Audience

DEFENDS HIS "WALK"

Says Party's 1932 Platform Pledges Were Thrown Out
Of the Window

By International News Service

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 9.—The campaign of Alfred E. Smith, former Democratic Governor of New York State, against the re-election of President Roosevelt had been advanced a step further today with an address here last night in which Smith reiterated and elaborated his charge that the Democratic administration had repudiated the platform upon which Roosevelt was elected.

Smith spoke at the Metropolitan Opera House under the auspices of the National Jeffersonian Democrats, and the speech was broadcast throughout the country. It was his first appearance on the platform as an anti-Roosevelt Democrat since he made his announcement in New York that he would support Governor Alfred M.
Landon for the presidency.

The Democratic platform of 1932,
Smith said, was one of the best ever adopted by a political party in this country, but he accused the President and the administration of departing from the promises which had been made.

"If I had thought," Smith declared,
"that I was going to get the platform of Norman Thomas (Socialist Presidential candidate) instead of that of the Democratic party, I would have voted for Herbert Hoover in 1932."

"Never have I seen so complete a repudiation of a platform in letter, spirit and principle. The people who voted this party into power found themselves misled and betrayed by those in whom they had placed their trust."

The New Deal, Smith said, redeemed only two of its platform pledges—by passing the Securities and Exchange Act and by repealing prohibition.

"What happened to the rest of the platform?" Smith asked his audience.
"Out the window!"

The audience roared as Smith walked to the speaker's stand, waving his right arm.

"The primary functions of government," Smith began, "are the preservation of life and property. There is something going on in the State of Pennsylvania today that should never be tolerated. I refer to the delivery
Continued on Page Four

Grange Members Discuss
Ten-Hour Day at Meeting

LANGHORNE, Oct. 9.—Farmers, it was pointed out at the fairly well attended meeting of Middletown Grange in session in the Friends' school house, here, Wednesday evening, cannot hope to be able to complete all of their work by working only 10 hours a day.

Speaking briefly on the question,
"Can the efficient farmer operate on a 10-hour day?" Ellis Tomlinson and other members of the grange said there are times throughout the year that the farmer can get all of his work done by working ten hours or less, but at other times, especially during the harvest season, the farmer will have to work more than 10 hours.

During the business session a brief report of the booster meeting held at Woodside last Thursday evening was presented, and the committee in charge of that meeting was discharged.

One of the questions which was assigned by the lecturer, Mrs. Anna Johnson, at the meeting Wednesday was "Can a girl learn more in her mother's kitchen than by taking a domestic science course in school?" Mrs.
May Newbold, who opened the discussion, said this depends entirely upon the mother and the daughter. The former, she said, should show a willingness to co-operate with the girl in the home. She can so arrange her work that the girl will not have to do the same things all of the time.

Edwin Ridge discussed the question,
"Should the importation of farm products into this country be prohibited?"
His reply, which was very brief, was to the effect that there should be a tariff which will regulate the importation of foreign products.

One of the members stated that he would like to hear the question,
"Would electric lights on the highways assist motorists?" discussed. It was decided to hold over this discussion for another meeting.

Before adjournment the lecturer read a number of puzzles and current events were given by Mrs. Mabel Hibbs.

The next meeting will take place at the home of Mrs. May Newbold, here, on Wednesday evening, October 21.

TIDES AT BRISTOL

High water ..... 10:09 a. m.; 10:39 p. m.
Low water ..... 4:34 a. m.; 4:53 p. m.

Invite Public To Visit
Stables On Laing Estate

The public is invited to visit the grounds and stables of the Bristol
Riding Club, Laing Estate, Newport Road, which have just been rearranged and improved for the eleventh semi-annual horse show for the benefit of Harriman Hospital to be held October 24th and 25th, starting both days at 12 o'clock noon.

The show promises to be the largest event of its kind in this vicinity.

Horses from all the larger stables will be exhibited, including those of Neshaminy Farms, Helen Culin, Ada
Hoffman, and many others. The Beaty Boys, with their rodeo stunts and trick ponies, who were a sensation at the Spring show, will be back in this show with a number of new tricks. Fred Wettach who holds the world's championship for height in jumping horses will be one of the judges.

THREE WEEKS REQUIRED TO CLEAN UP BATTLES

Knickerbocker Finds Roadside Improved, However, On Route to Ralavera

FOOD UNINVITING

(Note: Following is the 22nd of the war logs sent from the Spanish battlefield by H. R.
Knickerbocker, famous roving correspondent of International News Service.)

By H. R. Knickerbocker
I. N. S. Staff Correspondent
(Copyright 1936 by I. N. S.)

TALAVERA DE LA REINA, Oct. 9.— (INS)—We dined last night with the Marques de Sales in Caceres, in a restaurant apparently reserved for aviation officers. We were starving after a whole day of driving all the way from Burgos without a bite to eat. But we couldn't take the green beans because they were cooked in olive oil too rancid to tolerate. However, there was some fair chicken.

After dinner we drove on to Trujillo which had been full of Moorish troops when I was there before, but was now empty so we had no trouble getting rooms in the Hotel Cubano, and I slept like a log until seven in the morning. I got up and went hunting food. I didn't want to get stuck at the front for a day or two without anything to eat and I was not sure we would be in touch with the troops at eating time.

I wandered about the town from place to place and picked up two large tins of sardines, a pound of sliced ham, two cans of peaches, half a dozen bars of chocolate, and four bottles of water. Then I got the two thermos bottles filled with coffee and milk at the hotel, had a miserable breakfast of that same coffee, a vile imitation of there ever was one, and two eggs fried in rancid olive oil.

We sped over the road to Talavera in the brilliant sunshine of a delightfully cool morning. The last time I was here it was insufferably hot. The Legion fought half-naked with no shirts. They are all wearing their shirts now. But we saw few soldiers all the way along through Navalmaral.
Continued on Page Five

Tells Rotarians About Safety On Highways

Bristol Rotarians were given some new ideas on the problem of safety in driving yesterday when they gathered at Bowen's dining hall to listen to an address by Edward C. Spring, Director of National Safety Councils, who spoke on the "Human Side of Safety."

"Picturing the horror of accidents will never stop accidents," Mr. Spring claimed. "To control safety we must not only know safety technique but we must control the social life."

"Unless the full machinery of the law, administered in a helpful and cooperative manner, is brought to bear upon the pedestrian and the automobile driver all our safety work will avail nothing."

Spring pointed out that "the entire psychology of the safety movement is a direct challenge to the human side of the individual."

"Safety is a human problem and as such must deal directly with the conscious and subconscious mind," Spring stated.

Deploing the practice of various agencies that use safety as an advertising medium Spring said, "The whole practice should be stopped. It is unfair and unethical."

One method advanced by the speaker for the elimination of accidents and the promotion of a lasting safety was a driver's license law with suspension and revocation clauses.

ENROLL AT TEMPLE

Three students from the Bristol high school are among the 11,000 enrolled at Temple University, Philadelphia, for the current year. They are, Eleanor Petrick, 1505 Wilson avenue;
John Stallone, 932 Jefferson avenue;
and Albert Hey, 920 Radcliffe street.
Miss Petrick and Mr. Stallone are enrolled in the Teachers College where they are majoring in physical education. Mr. Hey has registered in the School of Commerce and is taking a journalism course.

MAN OF AVERAGE FAMILY HAD TO WORK 34.31
DAYS JUST TO PAY HIS TAX BILL, RECENT SURVEY CONDUCTED BY RHODE ISLAND NEWSPAPER SHOWS

Statistics gathered over a period of one year by the Providence,
R. I., "Journal," show the extent to which hidden taxes are being collected every day from Mr. and Mrs. Average Citizen.

In the "Journal's" survey three average families were employed to keep an accurate record of their expenses.

These families submitted their budgets each month during the course of the year, and it became evident they were living in such an extremely thrifty manner, and abstaining to such an extent from the use of heavily taxed articles, that their indirect tax bill would be much lower than that of the average family. None of these families pay income tax. One pays no property tax except indirectly in rent. One family has no automobile, and the others drive for pleasure on a much below average basis. High priced government taxed movies were avoided. Clothes were made at home. No money was thrown away on luxuries.
The liquor bill of the three families for the year totalled $5.69.
Even the tobacco bill was very small.

Family No. 2.—The family of Frank
A. Bateman, 103 Calaman Road,
Cranston, R. I.

The annual income of the Bateman family was $2,600. Mr. Bateman was employed as an office manager for a Providence concern. There are three children in the family which lives in an eight-room house.

In the period under survey, conducted by a staff of research men by the Providence Journal to compute the direct and hidden taxes of an average family, Mr. Bateman had to work 34.31 days just to pay his tax bill.

Mr. Bateman had to work a week of the year to feed an invisible guest at his table—the tax collector. That unbidden guest, who represents an im-post on everything we eat and drink, consumed $57.87 worth of food.

Mr. Bateman had to work 97 1/2 days to pay his family's annual food costs of $27.19. Of this amount $57.87, or 6.99 per cent went for indirect taxes.

The year's clothing outlay for the family was $286.39. Of this expenditure, $18.51, or 6.46 per cent represented taxes imposed on the clothing at various stages of production and marketing and passed on to the Batemans as consumers.

Thus, Mr. Bateman had to work 34 days to earn enough to pay for his family's clothes. And nearly 2 1/2 days of this time he spent in earning the money involved in the tax on this clothing.

That tax bill, the newspaper's research man points out, would have bought another suit for one of his two sons, or a year's supply of stockings for his daughter.

The only difference between Mr.
Bateman and the man who owns his own home is that the latter pays his tax on real estate directly, while Bateman pays it to the landlord as part of the rent.

In the year in question, he spent $447.50 for rent. Of this, $24.42 or 20.65 per cent accounted for property taxes. To pay this indirect property tax, Mr. Bateman had to work 11.31 days. If it had not been for this tax, his rent would have been almost $8 a month less.

And, indeed, the proportion of taxes in the rental would have been substantially larger were it not for the circumstance that the owner of the house is a World War veteran and receives a $1,000 tax exemption. (No such exemption obtains in Pennsylvania.)

The family also rented a summer cottage for one month at $35. The tax included in this was $8.65.

In the year, the Batemans spent $1,207.84 for miscellaneous goods and services, including rent, but exclusive of food and clothing.

This expenditure cost Mr. Bateman $191.56 or 15.86 per cent in taxes, for which he had to work 22 1/2 days.

He paid altogether $290.65 in taxes on the year's expenses of $2,561.64.
Because he didn't pay directly any real estate taxes, his tax bill consisted of $267.05 in indirect taxes and $23.60 in direct levies.

At least 11.42 cents of every dollar spent by the Batemans during the year was consumed by taxes.

Discussing this, Mr. Bateman declared:

"Under normal conditions a man earning $2,600 a year ought to be able to save something for a rainy day.
But in view of this heavy tax burden
we have found it impossible to save very much. (He saved $38.37 last year.)"
Continued on Page Five

RED CROSS VOLUNTEERS
PREPARE FOR ROLL CALL

Annual Drive To Open On Armistice Day, November 11th, It Is Announced

THE NEED IS GREAT

Volunteer workers in all parts of Bucks County have pledged their services to the annual Red Cross Roll Call, which begins November 11.

All through the summer chapter and branch leaders have been building up the organization of volunteer Roll Call workers in their communities until today there are more than 9,000 volunteers who have agreed to work in the Membership Campaign under the chairmanship of Joseph M. Patterson.
Through the efforts of these volunteers, every citizen in Bucks, Delaware, Montgomery and Philadelphia counties, which comprise the Southeastern Pennsylvania Chapter of the American Red Cross, will be invited to have a share in the work of this organization by enrolling as a member from Armistice Day to Thanksgiving.

Stressing the need for an even larger number of members this year than last, Mrs. Thomas Potter, Jr., acting chairman of the Southeastern Pennsylvania chapter said: "The value of Red Cross service was never more clearly shown than in the past year when this organization aided the victims of 105 different disasters, affecting 39 of the 48 States. Pennsylvania bore a heavy share of the havoc wrought by the Spring floods and knows how necessary it is to keep the Red Cross in a strong and vigorous condition, ready to meet future needs."
"No one should confuse the coming membership campaign for funds to support the regular, year-around work of the Red Cross with the special disaster relief appeal made last spring in behalf of the flood and tornado sufferers."

"The annual Roll Call provides funds for the work of our local Chapter and our share of the national and international work of the Red Cross including preparedness for disaster service."

"Many disasters occur each year in which no general appeal is made, the cost of giving assistance being borne from the funds of the National Red Cross, set aside for that purpose from annual Roll Call memberships, but in the event of such widespread catastrophe as the spring disasters of this year, affecting 200 counties in 20 Eastern States, additional funds were necessary. But it was the annual membership drive."
Continued on Page Five

ANDALUSIA GIRL SCOUTS
CHANGE THEIR PARTY DATE

Hallowe'en Affair To Be Held On Thursday Evening,
October 29th

PLANS ARE UNDER WAY

ANDALUSIA, Oct. 9.—The date for the Hallowe'en party to be given by the Lone Star Troop, Andalusia girl scouts, has been changed from October 27 to October 29 as the result of plans made at the meeting at the Log Cabin this week. Twenty-two girl scouts were present at the meeting.

Plans for the party are well under way, a committee having been appointed Tuesday evening to prepare for the decorations for the entertainment which will be held in the Log Cabin on Bristol Pike. The committee includes: Marie Still, Jeanne Stackhouse, Lois Lange, and Ethel Hartman.

Included in the program Tuesday
Continued on Page Five

Is Unexpected Hostess
At Miscellaneous Shower

Miss Angeline Messinella, Penn street, was an unexpected hostess last evening, when friends tendered her a miscellaneous shower. The party was given by the Misses Rose Mauro, Fanny Zazzarino and Theresa and Mary Messinella, at Miss Messinella's home. The evening was spent in a social way and dancing. Refreshments were served.

Guests attending were: the Misses Theresa and Josephine Amadio, Lucy Puzzello, Jennie Paoletta, Jennie and Mary Pico, Katharine Bradley, Mary Keller, Elizabeth Scurti, Margaret and Jennie Ventriglia, Carmella Castor, Louise Mazzanti, Mary Pone, Mary
Scancelli, Rose Tamburella, Angeline
Mauro, Josephine Messinella, Mary Mancino, Margaret Mauro; Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Messinella, Mr. and Mrs.
Joseph Messinella, Mr. and Mrs.
Thomas Parveso, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Crossan, Mr. and Mrs. George Flagg, Mrs. Phillip Paoletta, Mrs.
Nicholas Paoletta, Mrs. P. Giagnacova,
Mrs. Anthony Mignone, Mrs. Anthony
Embusco, Mrs. Theresa Jardine, Peter Ferterio, James Bradley.

Miss Margaret Ventriglia entertained with several vocal solos.

INDIANS TO TOUR
BUCKS COUNTY SCHOOLS

Group From Reservation To Visit Schools and Service Clubs

EDUCATIONAL PROJECT

An Indian tour sponsored by the federal government for the purpose of better acquainting the children of Pennsylvania with the customs of the redskins when they inhabited the Keystone State, is due to arrive in Doylestown, Monday.

Composed of ten Indians from different tribes from the new Elk River Indian Reservation at Elkton, Md., the visitors will come here under the supervision of Alfred Tamargo, Indian supervisor, who was in town today making arrangements for the tour that will take in a number of Bucks county boroughs and other communities.

County Superintendent of Schools, J. Harry Hoffman, of Doylestown, has Continued on Page Six

Torresdale Manor Ass'n
Conducts October Session

TORRESDALE MANOR, Oct. 9.—The monthly meeting of Torresdale Manor Improvement Association was held at the home of W. G. Beecroft, last evening. Committee reports were heard.

Owing to a number of new families moving into the community, letters are to be sent to each home, stating the aims and achievements of the association, and asking co-operation of every household.

Refreshments were served. The next meeting will be at the home of Walter Keller.

Wishes To Raise Son As American

New York, Oct. 9.—Countess Barbara Hutton Haugwitz-Reventlow, who like the Linberghs fled abroad to escape the spotlight at home, wants to come back and raise her baby son to be an American.

She told this to Adele Rogers St.
John in London, in the first interview
she has given since her baby was born, in the November issue of Cosmopolitan. She tells why she left America and how she wants to bring up her son and even discussed the failure of her first marriage to the late Prince Alex Mdivani.

"REMEMBER SPAIN AND VOTE LIKE MAINE!" IS RINGING PLEA OF VICE-PRESIDENT OF THE REPUBLICAN NAT'L COMMITTEE: 300 GATHER

Mrs. Worthington Scranton Further Arouses Women of The County Who Are Already Alert to Plight of the U. S.— Congressman Ditter Tells That Roosevelt is on Defensive —Bucks County Council of Republican Women Has Big Meetings at Doylestown—Mrs. John W. Cooper is Re-Elected President.

(By STAFF CORRESPONDENT)

DOYLESTOWN, Oct. 9—"Remember Spain and vote like Maine!"

This was the ringing plea of Mrs. Worthington Scranton, vice-president of the Republican National Committee, as she aroused to a greater degree 300 Republican women of Bucks County, who are already keenly alert to the plight of the United States. The message, answered with rousing applause by some of the foremost home-makers of the county, was delivered on the occasion of a meeting of Bucks County Council of Republican Women held in the Doylestown Country Club yesterday.

Arranged on the program of the two sessions were also the following who drove home in stirring terms the message that America is indeed in peril, and who made pleas that the country be saved from the throes of such terrors as are rampant in foreign countries: U. S. Congressman J. William Ditter, of Montgomery County; Mrs. John Hampton Barnes, president of the Philadelphia Republican Luncheon Club; Mrs. Edna R.
Carroll, Philadelphia; Theodore R. Gardner, Republican candidate for United States Congressman from the Bucks-Lehigh district; Wilson L. Yeakel, Perkasio, and Thomas B. Stock-ham, Morrisville, candidates for re-election to the General Assembly from this district.

"Roosevelt is on the defensive," stated the Honorable Mr. Ditter. "I've heard representatives defend certain issues and plans, but as an American I hung my head in shame the other night when I heard President Roosevelt at Syracuse defend his Americanism. He stood at the bar of public opinion as a defendant. He tried to say 'Not guilty,' but couldn't, in view of cumulative testimony. . . . Roosevelt stands convicted today until he dismisses Tugwell, until he denies Wallace, and until all such no longer have power to be where they now are. I want a President able to go North, South, East and West, and be the exemplification of the traditions of America.
I want him to be able to feel he's my leader, with the surge of the conquering spirit of America. And we'll have such a president if Alf Landon goes to the White House. I want the American flag to be honored, not extused. You can honor that flag by sending Alf Landon to the White House."

TO ERECT BLEACHERS
ON HIGH SCHOOL FIELD

Fathers' Association and Athletic Association to Pay Bill Jointly

TO BE PERMANENT

Bristol High School will very shortly have a set of bleacher stands on the athletic field. This decision was reached last evening when the Fathers' Association held its regular monthly meeting at the high school.

Plans for the stands are now being drawn up and it is expected that work on their erection will begin within a few days. It is planned to use the stands for fall athletics contests here.

Members of the association unanimously agreed to support the project which will be paid for equally by the Association and the Bristol High School Athletic Association. It is estimated that the stands will cost $400, the expenses to be borne equally by the two associations.

The bleachers will be of a permanent nature, according to the present plans. They will be placed on the northwest side of the athletic field, towards the railroad tracks.

Following the business session the evening was devoted to talks by Howard Stepp, swimming coach at Princeton University, and George Erb, school
Continued on Page Four

Exchange Club Hears
About Photo Engraving

The mechanics and development of photo engraving were discussed last night when members of the Exchange Club met in the Elks' Home to listen to a talk on "The Photo Engraving Business" by Lewis R. Benedict, treasurer of the Philadelphia Phototype Engraving Co.

The approximately 20 Exchange members who attended the meeting were told of the development of engraving from the days of the hand press through the roto press stage and up to the present rotogravure work.

Mr. Benedict illustrated his talk with a number of different specimens of photo engraving work. He also discussed the work as it now being turned out and talked on the work of his company which has been a pioneer in the field of photo engraving.

The speaker told the group that although the processes have developed considerably since the time of the hand press, yet he expects that only a beginning has been made in the field and that in the next few years the process will be further developed and perfected.

The gathering of women was told by the Congressman that "If Pennsylvania is to go Republican, which we know it is, the women of Pennsylvania will do it."

Tribute was paid by the speaker to the late Congressman Henry W. Watson. "He was a sturdy Republican and a stalwart American. Young 'Ted' Gardner will carry on as the late Congressman Watson carried on."

Turning attention to the present
President, Congressman Ditter exclaimed: "I'd like to know anything that Roosevelt has done that wasn't political. I defy him to tell me. I join Mrs. Carroll, our previous speaker, in denouncing his spirit of blasphemy that was in that 'Green Pastures' speech of Roosevelt. . . . Have any of you heard Roosevelt give any real reason as to the motive for his program of the last three years. Have you heard him say what he will do about the NRA if re-elected. The sum of $5000 was spent in fireworks in Washington the night the NRA was born. Some time later we heard the NRA was dead, but yet the NRA skeleton persists, and a great number of NRA employees are biding their time until after election, hoping that President Roosevelt will go back to the White House. I would like to have Mr. Roosevelt tell me if we are going to be 'NRA'd' again if he is elected, as he hopes. The people of America should demand his stand on many problems foremost in American minds.
I want Roosevelt, as he seeks votes, to tell us if we are to have a new potato law. That was a baby Franklin never wanted to acknowledge. That poor kid certainly had a hard time finding his parents."

Turning to local problems the speaker told the women that "You should be proud of your mills and industries in this county. We want President Roosevelt to tell us if he is re-elected if the reciprocal tariff agreement is to be continued. Is he going to throw open the door to low foreign labor.
We want the Senate and House of Representatives to have a part in treaties with other nations. In other words we want the people, through Congress, to have a voice in ratification of the same."

Roundly scored on all sides were the methods of the "New Dealers." The rain descended during the morning, but showing their keenness for the business at hand, and interest in the welfare of America and its people, the women gathered from points in the county, both far and near. The weather did not dampen the spirit of the gathering, or deter the attendance one iota.
Gathered about the luncheon tables at the noon hour, neighbors and chance acquaintances discussed phases of the campaign from many angles, and voiced disgust with the insidious things permitted abroad today.

Mrs. John W. Cooper, Pineville, pres-
Continued on Page Four

This Strange New Deal

Ten million people earn their living from the production, processing and handling of raw cotton.

2,500,000 Americans were put on relief by New Deal policies cutting cotton acreage by 13,000,000.

Vote for Landon and Knox.

The Bristol Courier

Established 1810
Published Every Evening (except Sunday) at 100 West 1st St., Bristol, Pa. Phone 846
Only Daily Paper in Lower Bucks County
BRISTOL PRINTING COMPANY
Owner and Publisher
Incorporated May 27, 1914
Berrill D. Detlefsen, Managing Editor
Ellis E. Ratcliffe, Secretary
Subscription Price per Year, in advance, $5.00; Six Months, $3.00; Three Months, $1.50
The Courier is delivered by carrier in Bristol, Edgely, Tullytown, Bridge-water, Crofton, Andalusia, West Bristol, Halmesville, East Addition, Newportville and Torresdale Manor for six cents a week.
JOB PRINTING
The Courier has the most complete commercial printing department in Bucks County. Work of any description promptly and satisfactorily done.
Entered as Second Class Mail matter at the Post Office at Bristol, Pa.
Informational News Service has the exclusive rights to use for publication in any form all news dispatches credited to it or not otherwise credited in this paper. It is also exclusively entitled to use for radio, television, motion picture and other news published herein.
FRIDAY, OCTOBER 9, 1936

The Republican Ticket

President
Alfred M. Landon
Vice-President
Colonel Frank Knox
State Treasurer
Frank L. Pinola
Auditor General
E. Arthur Sweeney
Member of Congress
Theodore R. Gardner
Assembly
Thomas B. Stockham
Wilson L. Yeakel
GUNS AND BOYS
The American Congress of Parent-Teachers Association, campaigning to abolish toy firearms and to give the children less provocative toys, may be inclined to sniff at the declaration of Superior Judge Joseph B. Lindsley of Spokane, Washington, that the move to take guns from boys is bunk.
Not will they be particularly impressed by the further content of his judicial opinion: "A boy needs a gun as much as he needs a dog. He also needs training and supervision in the handling and use of a gun. The spirit of adventure is born into boys. They want to read of Daniel Boone and other stories of adventure. Then they want toy guns, and as they grow older, they should have firearms and be taught to use them."
Doubtless both attitudes, in the matter of boys and guns, are based on observation and experience. That boys have a good time with guns goes without saying, whether the gun be a water, a cannon for throwing wooden bullets, an air rifle or a cap pistol. Boys also take pleasure in the use of pea-shooters and sling-shots.
The Parent-Teachers Association, however, probably would lay stress on the consideration that a boy without a mischief-promoting gun is a nicer boy to have around; that boys are men in the making and that the tendency to use guns for mischief may be a lingering one, aside from the hazard of an early martial consciousness. They might ask Judge Lindsley just why a man should be accustomed to the use of firearms. The hobby of shooting is one thing; but, save for certain vocations occupationally requiring the use of firearms, individual familiarity with their use is quite another matter. Police do not recommend the keeping of firearms for household protection, the risk being out of proportion to the measure of protection.

WATCH OUT, DIGEST!

Thirty-one States have contributed more than three-quarters of a million votes to the Literary Digest Presidential straw vote, and Governor Landon has commanding leads in all but a half-dozen in the Southern hinterland.
The New Deal hierarchy at Washington will be sorely displeased by this development. If it doesn't find some way to strafe the Digest for its temerity—through income tax action, perhaps?—it will be admitting its decadence.
There was a time when anyone who dared to press pants for five cents less than the price decreed by the Roosevelt Dictatorship went to jail.
Because fair traffic offenders could nudge him in the ribs and escape without tickets, an officer in Alabama has been suspended, a victim of his own Southern chivalry. And still, it is nice to feel there is an arm signal the girls have remembered.

CHURCH ACTIVITIES IN THE ADJACENT COMMUNITIES

Newport Road Community Chapel
Rally Day will be observed at Newport Road Community Chapel, Sunday. A program will be given by the children at 10:30 a. m., with attendance rewards being presented. The rite of baptism will also take place with the Rev. Ernest Hunter in charge.

South Langhorne Lutheran Church
The Evangelical Lutheran Church of the Redeemer, South Langhorne, the Rev. W. S. Heist, pastor:
Sunday School, 10:30 a. m.; the Service, 7:30 p. m.; organization of the Catechetical Class, Monday, 7:30 p. m.

Halmesville Methodist Church
The Rev. T. William Smith, minister: 10 a. m., Church School, J. C. Everitt, superintendent, lesson, "Becoming a Christian" (Acts 16:22-34); Philippians 3:7-14; 11, morning worship with a sermon by the minister, "How to Be Great Spiritually" (Philippians 2:7-8); 6:45 p. m., Epworth League, topic, "What? Me, a Missionary?" (Matthew 28:19, 20; Romans 10:13-15); leader, Miss Elizabeth Foster, pianist, Miss Marie Hanson; 7:30, evening worship with song service and sermon by the minister, "The Price of Disobedience" (Jonah 1:3). Special music will be a saxophone solo by Albert Tomlinson.
This is annual Rally Day, homecoming day and Harvest Home. The church will be decorated with fresh and preserved fruits and vegetables and groceries. Annual roll call of members will occur at the morning service. Each member is being asked to give a dollar on this day to wipe out a deficiency.
Monday, eight p. m., business and the social meeting of the Senior Epworth League at the home of the Misses Lettie, Ellen and Betty Everitt; Thursday, 6:30 p. m., first annual get-together and fellowship supper of the Epworth League in Epworth Hall. Guests will be the Rev. A. F. Fischer, of Grace Episcopal Church; and Rev. Elmer Bohne-Echolt, Greenwood M. E. Church, Trenton, N. J.

Crofton Lutheran Church
St. Luke's Lutheran Church, Crofton: Sunday School and Bible Class, 10 a. m.; morning service, 11; evening service, 8 o'clock; pastor, the Rev. T. H. Kohlmeier.
Sunday School teachers meet Friday, eight p. m.; choir practice, Friday, 8:30 p. m.; Good Samaritan Club meets Wednesday, two p. m.; Walther League, Thursday, eight p. m.
St. Luke's Lutheran Sunday School announces a new record has been established with the attendance of 132 enrolled members present Sunday, October 4th.

Andalusia Episcopal Church
Church of the Redeemer, Andalusia, Rev. W. W. Williams, rector; 15th Sunday after Trinity.
Eight a. m., Holy Communion; 10 a. m., Church School (Sunday School and Bible Classes); 11, morning prayer and sermon, topic, "God's Adventure"; eight, evening prayer and sermon, topic, "Christian Enrichments"; three p. m., Sunday, special confirmation class instructions held at the church.
10 a. m., Saturday, October 10th, Junior Auxiliary at kitchen; 3:30 p. m., Thursday, Junior Auxiliary at parish house; seven p. m., Thursday, Library night; 7:30 p. m., Thursday, Young Men's Fellowship, parish house; eight p. m., Thursday, choir rehearsal; 10 a. m., Saturday, October 17th, Junior Auxiliary at kitchen.

Cornwells Heights M. E. Church
Sunday will be Rally Day at the Cornwells Heights M. E. Church. A great Christian rally will be held in the morning at 10 o'clock. This will take the place of the regular Sunday School session and the morning worship.

Eddington Presbyterian Church
The Rev. Arthur D. Sargis, minister: Sunday services: There will be no regular Sunday School session at 10 and no regular divine worship at 11 but a combined Rally day service in the church at 10:30. Elder Arthur G. Wilkison, the superintendent, will conduct this combined service.
Evening service at eight. The Bkirstown delegates will report on the conference they attended in July. Weekday services: Prayer meeting on Wednesday night at eight.

POCKETBOOK FACTS ABOUT YOUR TAXES
New Deal Pleasure Taxes
Leisure time activities of the American people are taxed at every turn to provide a part of the tremendous cost of the Roosevelt administration.
While the very cheapest admissions to moving pictures are exempt, there is a tax of 10 per cent on all tickets sold for more than 40 cents. Sporting goods bear a tax of 10 per cent. This includes equipment for baseball, tennis, golf, billiards, chess, checkers and various other games, skates, toboggans and canoe paddles. Firearm shells and cartridges also are subject to a 10 per cent tax. Playing cards are taxed 10 cents per pack. Club dues and initiation fees are taxed 10 per cent over prescribed minimums.

10 a. m., Saturday, October 10th, Junior Auxiliary at kitchen; 3:30 p. m., Thursday, Junior Auxiliary at parish house; seven p. m., Thursday, Library night; 7:30 p. m., Thursday, Young Men's Fellowship, parish house; eight p. m., Thursday, choir rehearsal; 10 a. m., Saturday, October 17th, Junior Auxiliary at kitchen.

Cornwells Heights M. E. Church
Sunday will be Rally Day at the Cornwells Heights M. E. Church. A great Christian rally will be held in the morning at 10 o'clock. This will take the place of the regular Sunday School session and the morning worship.

ship. It will be a combined service, including the Sunday School and the church. An interesting program has been arranged. Some of the children of the Sunday School will take part. Mr. Walter Wharton, superintendent of the Sunday School, and Rev. Howard W. Oursler, pastor of the church, will be in charge of the service. Mr. Oursler will preach a junior sermon for the smaller children and will also speak briefly to the entire assembly on the subject, "Rallying to Jesus Christ." In order to accommodate all of the children of the Sunday School and their parents and friends, as well as the morning congregation of the church, this great rally will be held in the Sunday School auditorium. The service will be concluded about 11:30.
Sunday will also be observed as Harvest Home Day and contributions of foodstuffs will be received for dispatch to the Methodist Home for the Aged.
At the conclusion of the rally, there will be the election of a lay delegate to the next annual conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church.
At seven o'clock on Sunday evening,

POCKETBOOK FACTS ABOUT YOUR TAXES

New Deal Pleasure Taxes
Leisure time activities of the American people are taxed at every turn to provide a part of the tremendous cost of the Roosevelt administration.
While the very cheapest admissions to moving pictures are exempt, there is a tax of 10 per cent on all tickets sold for more than 40 cents. Sporting goods bear a tax of 10 per cent. This includes equipment for baseball, tennis, golf, billiards, chess, checkers and various other games, skates, toboggans and canoe paddles. Firearm shells and cartridges also are subject to a 10 per cent tax. Playing cards are taxed 10 cents per pack. Club dues and initiation fees are taxed 10 per cent over prescribed minimums.

the Junior Young People's Association will meet for its regular devotional service.
At eight o'clock, there will be the regular Gospel song service and evening worship. Rev. Oursler will preach on the subject, "Three Kinds of Men."

EMILIE

Mr. and Mrs. George Bentcliff, Jr., Edgely, were recent visitors of Mr. and Mrs. John Morrell, Sr.
Mrs. Helen Belmore and Clement Rockhill were Friday supper guests of Mr. and Mrs. William Rockhill.
There will be a "cottage" party under auspices of the Epworth League, in the social room of Emilie M. E. Church, Tuesday evening.

Mrs. Riley, Mr. and Mrs. Horace Ridge and daughter, Penns Park; Mr. and Mrs. Harry Yost, Mr. and Mrs. William Stackhouse, Philadelphia, were recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis V. Cox.
Mrs. Joseph Morris, Philadelphia, and Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Morris and children, Trenton, N. J., were recent visitors of Mr. and Mrs. Francis Paul.
Mrs. Harry Vandergrift spent Saturday afternoon visiting relatives in Wyndmoor.

Mrs. Howard Leonard, in company with Mrs. Clifford McIlheney and children, were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Lorne Whately.
Mrs. Benjamin Lessig and Mrs. Lester Stackhouse attended Trenton Fair, Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. George Baker, Sr., Robert Baker and Miss Rose Baker motored to Mauch Chunk, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Lodge and Mr. and Mrs. Abel Lodge, Roslyn, were Sunday visitors of Mr. and Mrs. William Rockhill.

Emma Davis, Newtown, was a recent visitor of Mr. and Mrs. William Hillborn.

Miss Gladys Wink and Miss Alma Harris and the latter's Sunday School class enjoyed a trip to Franklin Institute, Philadelphia, Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Freeman, New York, N. Y.; Miss Mabel Dietrich, Berwyn, were recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Dietrich.

YARDLEY

Mrs. Arthur Blaker, Mrs. Francis C. Thomas, and Mrs. Nelson Dilliplane will be hostesses at the tables at the chicken supper being served by the Ladies Aid of the Yardley Methodist Church.

THIS DATE IN NEWS OF PAST

Friday, October 9
Compiled by Clark Kinnaird
(Copyright, 1936, by I. N. S.)
1701—Yale College began its first term.
1867—Alaska was transferred to U. S. by Russia.
1889—Japan opened its ports generally to the world for the first time.
1934—King Alexander of Yugoslavia and Prime Minister Barthou of France were assassinated at Marseilles.
1935—N. J. Supreme Court upheld the conviction of Bruno Hauptmann.

Why Not Subscribe for Shares in a New Series Now Being Issued?

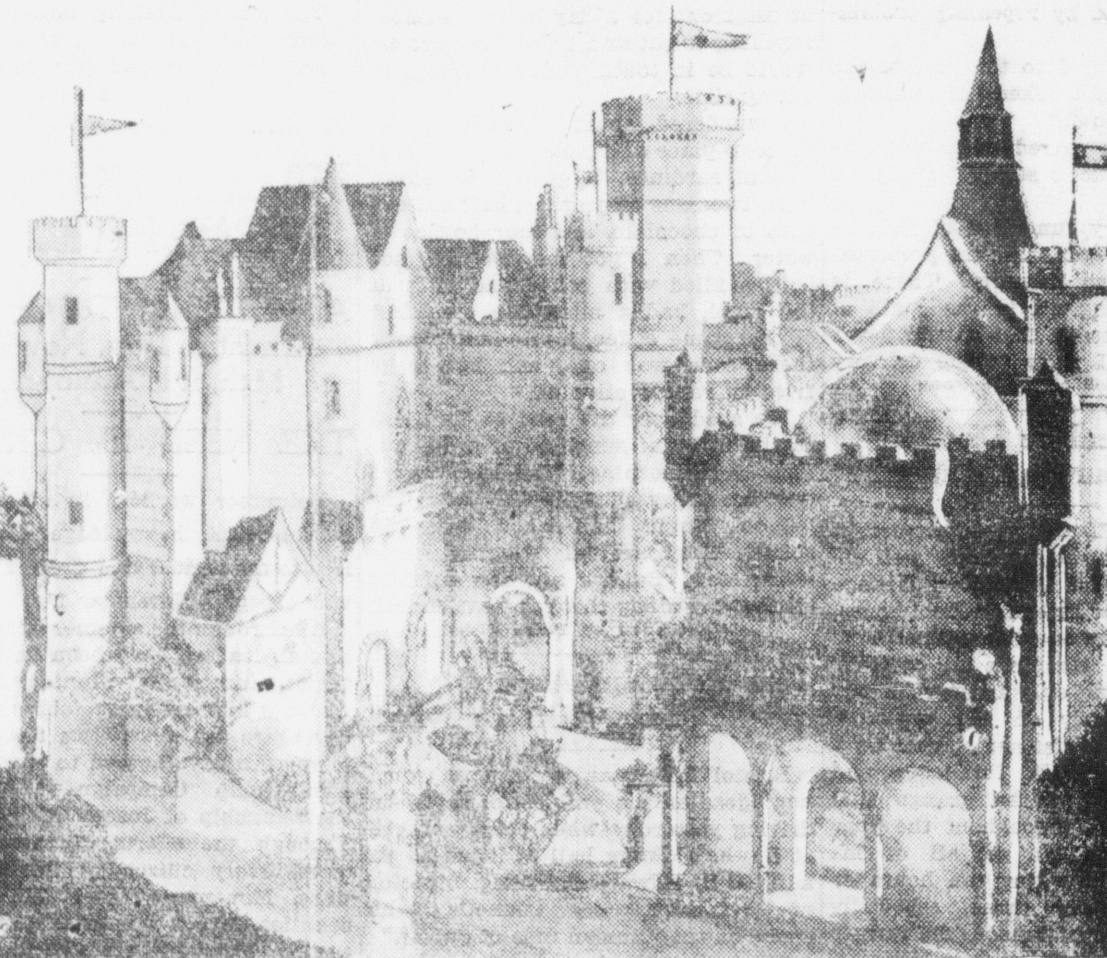

Save for a home, pay a debt, educate your children, provide for sickness and old age? Have your savings increased by regular dividends? Know that your money is safely invested in good first mortgages?

Townsite Building & Loan Association
118 Mill Street

GIMBEL BROTHERS PHILADELPHIA

SEE King Arthur's Round Table in Miniature
SEE the world's smallest Electric Light Bulbs
SEE the weeping willow tree that really weeps

Colleen Moore's FAMOUS $435,000 DOLL HOUSE

Exhibited for the benefit of Crippled Children's Charities

IN GIMBELS AUDITORIUM
FIFTH FLOOR
CHESTNUT STREET BUILDING
ADMISSION
10c BEFORE NOON
15c AFTER NOON

This is the Doll House known as the most exquisite toy in the world. Every child should see it — and every grown-up, too. It is shown in Philadelphia prior to its world tour and it may never return again. See it soon — a fabulous fairy castle of precious metals and rare jewels that will always live in your memory.

MEET Colleen Moore IN PERSON

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 10th
12 noon to 1 o'clock
3:30 to 4:30 o'clock

"THE BIG FOUR" by Agatha Christie

CHAPTER XXI
But why should any one want Gilmore Wilson out of the way—that's what I'd like to know? Harmless unassuming young fellow. Just come over here from the States, and apparently hadn't an enemy in the world.
"It seems incredible," I mused.
"Not at all," said Poirot, smiling. "Japp has his theory. I can see."
"I have, Moosier Poirot. I don't believe the poison was meant for Wilson—it was meant for the other man."
"Savaronoff?"
"Yes. Savaronoff fell foul of the Bolsheviks at the outbreak of the Revolution. He was even reported killed. In reality he escaped, and for three years endured incredible hardships in the wilds of Siberia. His sufferings were so great that he is now a changed man. His friends and acquaintances declare they would hardly have recognized him. His hair is white, and his whole aspect that of a man terribly aged. He is a semi-invalid, and seldom goes out, living alone with a niece, Sonia Daviloff, and a Russian man-servant in a flat down Westminster way. It is possible that he still considers himself a marked man. Certainly he was very unwilling to agree to this chess contest. He refused several times point blank, and it was only when the newspapers took it up and began making a fuss about the 'unsportsmanlike refusal' that he gave in. Gilmore Wilson had gone on challenging him with real Yankee pertinacity, and in the end he got his act, why wasn't he willing? Because he didn't want attention drawn to him. Didn't want somebody or other to get on his track. That's my solution—Gilmore Wilson got pipped by mistake."
"There is no one who has any private reason to gain by Savaronoff's death?"
"Well, his niece, I suppose. He's recently come into an immense fortune left him by Madame Gossipa whose husband was a sugar profiteer under the old regime. They had been deeply in love once, I believe, and she refused steadfastly to credit the reports of his death."
"Where did the match take place?"
"In Savaronoff's own flat. He's an invalid, as I told you."
"Many people there to watch it?"
"At least a dozen—probably more."
Poirot made an expressive grimace.
"My poor Japp, your task is not an easy one."
"Once I know definitely that Wilson was poisoned, I can get on."
"Has it occurred to you that, in the meantime, supposing your assumption that Savaronoff was the intended victim to be correct, the murderer may try again?"
"Of course it has. Two men are watching Savaronoff's flat."
"That will be very useful if any one should call with a bomb under his arm," said Poirot dryly.
"You're getting interested, Moosier Poirot," said Japp, with a twinkle. "Care to come round to the mortuary and see Wilson's body before the doctors start on it? Who knows, his tie-pin may be asked, and that may give you a valuable clue that will solve the mystery."
"My dear Japp, all through dinner my fingers have been itching to rearrange your own tie-pin. You permit, yes? Ah! that is much more pleasing to the eye. Yes, by all means, let us go to the mortuary."

outside case that I was quite rejoiced to see him back in his old form.
For my own part, I felt a deep pity as I looked down upon the motionless form and convulsed face of this hapless young American who had come by his death in such a strange way. Poirot examined the body attentively. There was no mark on it anywhere, except a small scar on the left hand.
"And the doctor says that's a burn, not a cut," explained Japp.
Poirot's attention shifted to the contents of the dead man's pockets which a constable spread out for our inspection. There was nothing much—a handkerchief, keys, note-case filled with notes, and some unimportant letters. But one object standing by itself filled Poirot with interest.
"A chessman!" he exclaimed. "A white bishop. Was that in his pocket?"
"No, clasped in his hand. We had quite a difficulty to get it out of his fingers. It must be returned to Dr. Savaronoff sometime. It's part of a very beautiful set of carved ivory chessmen."
"Permit me to return it to him. It will make an excuse for my going there."
"Ah!" cried Japp. "So you want to come in on this case?"
"I admit it. So skillfully have you aroused my interest."
"That's fine. Got you away from your brooding, Captain Hastings is pleased, too, I can see."
"Quite right," I said, laughing.
Poirot turned back towards the body.
"No other little detail you can tell me about—him?" he asked.
"I don't think so."
"Not even—that he was left-handed?"
"You're a wizard, Moosier Poirot. How did you know that? He was left-handed. Not that it's anything to do with the case."
"Nothing whatever," agreed Poirot hastily, seeing that Japp was slightly ruffled. "My little joke—that was all. I like to play you the trick, see you."
We went out upon an amicable understanding.

"Is it such a very wonderful specimen?" I asked.
"Eh? Oh! the rug? But no, it was not the rug I was remarking. But it is a beautiful specimen, far too beautiful to have a large nail wantonly driven through the middle of it. No, Hastings, as I came forward, 'The nail is not there now. But the hole remains.'"
"A sudden sound behind us made me spin round, and Poirot spring nimbly to his feet. A girl was standing in the doorway. Her eyes, full upon us, were dark with suspicion. She was of medium height, with a beautiful, rather sullen face, dark blue eyes, and very black hair which was cut short. Her voice, when she spoke, was rich and sonorous, and completely un-English.
"I fear my uncle will be unable to see you. He is a great invalid."
"That is a pity, but perhaps you will kindly help me instead. You are Mademoiselle Daviloff, are you not?"
"Yes, I am Sonia Daviloff. What is it you want to know?"
"I am making some inquiries about that sad affair the night before last—the death of M. Gilmore Wilson. What can you tell me about it?"
The girl's eyes opened wide.
"He died of heart failure—as he was playing chess."
"The police are not so sure that it was—heart failure, mademoiselle."
The girl gave a terrified gesture.
"It was true then," she cried.
"Ivan was right."
"Who is Ivan, and why do you say he was right?"
"It was Ivan who opened the door to you—and he has already said to me that in his opinion Gilmore Wilson did not die a natural death—that he was poisoned by mistake."
"By mistake."
"Yes, the poison was meant for my uncle."
She had quite forgotten her first distrust now, and was speaking eagerly.
"Why do you say that, mademoiselle. Who should wish to poison Dr. Savaronoff?"
She shook her head.
"I do not know. I am all in the dark. And my uncle, he will not trust me. It is natural, perhaps. You see, he hardly knows me. He saw me as a child, and not since till I came to live with him here in London. But this much I do know, he is in fear of something. We have many secret societies in Russia, and one day I overheard something which made me think it was of just such a society he went in fear. Tell me, monsieur—she came a step nearer, and dropped her voice—"have you ever heard of a society called 'The Big Four'?" Poirot jumped nearly out of his skin. His eyes positively bulged with astonishment.
"Why do you—what do you know of 'The Big Four', mademoiselle?"
"There is such an association, then? I overheard a reference to them, and asked my uncle about it afterwards. Never have I seen a man so afraid. He turned all white and shaking. He was in fear of them, monsieur, in great fear, I am sure of it. And, by mistake, they killed the American, Wilson."
"The Big Four," murmured Poirot. "Always the Big Four! An astonishing coincidence, mademoiselle, your uncle is still in danger. I must save him. Now recount to me exactly the events of that fatal evening. Show me the chess-board, the table, how the two men sat—everything."
(To Be Continued)

MONDAY AT Lit Brothers Philadelphia

MILLION DOLLAR LIT DAY

LAST DAY OF Fall LIT WEEK

THE ITEMS ON THIS PAGE ARE EXCELLENT EXAMPLES OF THE TREMENDOUS VALUES TO EXPECT!

PROMPT TELEPHONE SERVICE!

• If you can't shop in person for Million Dollar Lit Day bargains, our 24-hour telephone service is at your disposal, with 125 trunk lines manned by quick, courteous and efficient operators.

And . . . If You Want More Time to Pay for Your Purchases . . . Shop with a Lit Brothers Letter of Credit

. . . The grandest plan of extended credit yet devised, for you can use it same as cash ANYWHERE in the store! Or, buy on our club plan, or a regular monthly charge account.

"Empire" Sheets Seconds of "Mohawk"

Million Dollar
Lit Day Price! 79c

11 x 90, 72 x 99 and 63 x 99 inches. Rigid mill inspection found a few thick threads or tiny oil spots . . . nothing that affects looks or wear.

42 x 36 and 45 x 36 Pillow Cases, 27c

LIT BROTHERS—FIRST FLOOR, CENTRE, FILBERT STREET

"Iona" 50-Inch 49c Drapery Damask

Million Dollar
Lit Day Price! 29c yd.

We purchased last spring . . . that's how you get this at present production cost. Rust, green, red, gold, blue, eggshell, woodrose, brown. Exclusive pattern.

LIT BROTHERS—THIRD FLOOR, EIGHTH STREET

$29.50 Innerspring Sateen Mattresses

Million Dollar
Lit Day Price! $14

By the makers of "Komfo". Beautiful sateens. Quilted sisal and felt interior, ventilators, taped edges. $2 down. Balance monthly. Slight Carrying Charge.

LIT BROTHERS—FOURTH FLOOR, CENTRE

$3.98 to $5.98 Hand-Rubbed Solid-Maple Tables

Million Dollar
Lit Day Price! $2.99

Rich walnut or maple finishes. Revolving book table, lamp table, night table, pocket table, book trough, drop side table, butterfly table or coffee table.

LIT BROTHERS—FOURTH FLOOR, CENTRE

$1.64 a Month! "Detroit Star" $69.95 Gas Range

Million Dollar
Lit Day Price! $49.95

On our Homemakers' Plan . . . NO DOWN PAYMENT and 3 YEARS TO PAY! Slight carrying charge. $1.64 a month buys this model with HEAT CONTROL and PULL-OUT BROILER. Just 44.

LIT BROTHERS—THIRD FLOOR, CENTRE, MARKET STREET

Drain Tubs FREE with $52.30 Electric Washer Outfit

Million Dollar
Lit Day Price! $39.95

Electric pump . . . large tub with double coat of porcelain enamel . . . aluminum agitator . . . LOVELL WRINGER. NODOWNPAYMENT; Balance Monthly, Slight Carrying Charge

LIT BROTHERS—THIRD FLOOR, CENTRE, MARKET STREET

Men's $1.65 and $1.95 Fine Shirts

Million Dollar
Lit Day Price! $1

From 2 Famous Makers
Whose Labels You Know Well

White, candy stripes, herringbone stripes, clipped figures, hairline stripes, British stripes, cluster stripes, checks, plaids and all-over designs on light and dark grounds. Collars to suit every man . . . 8 styles in all! Sizes 13½ to 17.

LIT BROTHERS—FIRST FLOOR, SEVENTH STREET

"Avalon" Heavy Royal Wilton Rugs

Million Dollar
Lit Day Price! $32

Made to Sell for $54.50!

We contracted for this magnificent group of rugs months ago . . . that's why the astonishing low price! 8 rare designs of reproductions of treasured Persians. Extra fine yarns, thick fringing. Sizes 9 x 12 and 8.3 x 10.6.

$3 DELIVERS! Balance Monthly, Slight Carrying Charge

LIT BROTHERS—FOURTH FLOOR, EIGHTH STREET

$15 Allowance for Your Old Radio Towards Purchase of This

1936 World-Wide Philco Radio

List Price of Philco . . . $54.95
Less Allowance . . . $15.00

You Pay $39.95
ONLY

Complete with Tubes and Philco Aerial Kit! We doubt if we'll ever be able to duplicate this offer. This new Philco receives foreign and police broadcasts.

LIT BROTHERS—FIFTH FLOOR, EIGHTH STREET

Entire Stock Women's $4.40 "Lenard" Arch Shoes

Million Dollar
Lit Day Price! $3.69

Black and brown suede, calf, kid and combinations . . . ties, straps, pumps and oxfords. Sizes 4 to 9, AAA to D . . . some styles E and EEE.

LIT BROTHERS—FIRST FLOOR, EIGHTH AND FILBERT STREETS

Entire Stock Students' and Boys' Clothing

20% Less Than Regular

Deductions will be made from price ticket at time of purchase.

LIT BROTHERS—SECOND FLOOR, SEVENTH STREET

Girls' $13.98 Coats and Coat Sets

Million Dollar
Lit Day Price! $8.74

COATS: Tweeds and fleeces in swagger, sports or dressy fitted styles. 12 to 16 years.

COAT SETS: Three-piece models, wool suede, smartly fur trimmed. 7 to 12 years.

LIT BROTHERS—SECOND FLOOR, SEVENTH STREET

Entire Stock $2.98 "Fashion Deb" Shoes

Million Dollar
Lit Day Price! $2.59

For the Junior Miss. Patent, calf, suede, reverse calf, black, brown, green, gray, Kilties, ghillies, monks, moccasins, sandals. Sizes 3½ to 9, AAA to C.

LIT BROTHERS—FIRST FLOOR, EIGHTH AND FILBERT STREETS

Women's Pure-Dye Satin & Silk Crepe Slips

Million Dollar
Lit Day Price! $1.47

$1.69 to 1.98 values. SATIN SLIPS in tearose and white, lace trims in straight and V tops. Tailored styles with embroidery. SILK CREPE SLIPS with straight or V top; lace-trimmed. Sizes 34 to 44.

LIT BROTHERS—SECOND FLOOR, MARKET STREET

Values to $49.50! Misses' and Women's Fur-Trimmed Coats

Million Dollar
Lit Day Price! $25

Persian Lamb, kolinsky, caracul, blue fox, black fox, red fox, skunk, Canadian wolf, beaver. Sizes 14 to 20, 38 to 48, 33½ to 49½, 11 to 17. Ask About Terms of Payments!

LIT BROTHERS—COAT CENTRE, SECOND FLOOR, EIGHTH STREET

Misses' and Women's $6.95 to $8.95 New Fall Dresses

Million Dollar
Lit Day Price! $5.90

Crepes, taffetas, velvets, moires. Tunics, jackets, swing skirts, one-piece styles. Misses' sizes 12 to 20, Women's 38 to 52. Little Women's 18½ to 26½.

LIT BROTHERS—BUDGETEER DRESS SHOP, SECOND FLOOR, EIGHTH ST.

Women's $159 to $195 Fine Fur Coats

Million Dollar
Lit Day Price! $129

Chinese Kidskin, Silver Muskrat, Natural Muskrat, Russian Fitch, Silverstone Muskrat, Russian Pony, Raccoon, Caracul, Black Persian, Gray Persian, Hudson Seal-Dyed Muskrat. Swagger fitted, tunic, princess, box and trotteur styles. Women's and misses' sizes.

10% DOWN, 10 Months to Pay, Slight Carrying Charge.

LIT BROTHERS—FUR CENTRE, SECOND FLOOR, EIGHTH STREET

$25 to $30 Kirschbaum Suits, Topcoats & Overcoats for Men

Million Dollar
Lit Day Price! $21

Every Kirschbaum Suit Has the New Improved Talon Zipper Trouser!

Tailored with all the skill for which this maker is famous . . . of the finest woollens obtainable at this price. Complete range of sizes . . . even the new THREE-BUTTON sport suit is included.

LIT BROTHERS—SECOND FLOOR, SEVENTH STREET

7 to 9 SPECIALS MONDAY NIGHT

NO MAIL OR PHONE ORDERS

Reconditioned Radios $7.50

7 o'clock Monday Night!
Regularly $50. Zenith,
R. C. A., Philco and Bosch.
Perfect mechanical condition.
Complete with tubes.
Fifth Floor, 8th Street.

Woolen Remnants 29c yd.

7 o'clock Monday Night!
Regularly 98c to $1.49. 54 inches wide. Tweeds, rabbit hair, checks, coatings, novelty weaves. Lengths ½ to 3½ yards. First Floor, Centre, North.

Women's Leather Glove Special 69c

7 o'clock Monday Night!
Regularly $1 to $1.59. Clearance higher priced imported and domestic merchandise.
Black, brown, light shades.
Irregulars show handling.
First Floor, 8th Street.

Men's Famed $1.65 Shirts 77c

7 o'clock Monday Night!
Novelty pattern broadcloth and madras with Willno-more collar, button-downs or with neckbands and two matching collars. First Floor, 7th Street.

$1.95 Handbags 84c

7 o'clock Monday Night!
Leather and suede. Fall colors. Mostly one of a kind.
Slightly imperfect. Fourth Floor, 8th Street.

Heavy Royal $27.50 Wilton Rugs

7 o'clock Monday Night!
Regularly $52.50. Discontinued patterns of one of America's finest royal wilton rugs, including several handsome Persian and other designs. Fine wool yarn.
Fourth Floor, 8th Street.

Tots' Wool Snow Suits $2.39

7 o'clock Monday Night!
Zipper front, reinforced knees. Solid colors with plaid trims. Sizes 3 to 8 years. Second Floor, Centre, Market Street.

Innerspring $8.84 Mattresses

7 o'clock Monday Night!
Regularly $9.84. Just 75.
Standard sizes only. Attractive, durable ticking. Fourth Floor, 7th Street.

Framed Pictures 59c

7 o'clock Monday Night!
Regularly 98c. Metal finished frames. Old Master, floral, landscape, boudoir and other subjects. 16 x 20 inches. Third Floor, Market Street, Centre.

Women's $4 to $6 Shoes $2

7 o'clock Monday Night!
Broken lots, incomplete
sizes. Black or brown kid, calf and combinations.
First Floor, 8th & Filbert Streets.

Women's and $3.99 Misses' Dresses

7 o'clock Monday Night!
Regularly $6.95 to $10.75.
Street, dinner and afternoon models. Black, rust, green, blue or brown. Sizes for women, misses and little women. Second Floor, 8th & Market Streets.

89c Sheer Crepe Hosiery 44c

7 o'clock Monday Night!
Regularly 69c. 25% silk
and wool. Vests with narrow non-slip straps; pants
with latex at waist and knee. Flesh color. Small,
medium and large sizes.
First Floor, 8th Street.

Misses' Wool $1.79 Dresses

7 o'clock Monday Night!
Regularly $2.95. Stunning all wool dresses . . . sizes 14 to 20. Two-piece styles.
Second Floor, 8th Street.

Men's Wool $2.89 Jackets

7 o'clock Monday Night!
Regularly $3.98. Plaids and solid colors. Some with sports back. Built-in chest protector, talon zipper front. Sizes 36 to 46. Fifth Floor, 8th Street.

Women's Snug $3.33 Underwear

7 o'clock Monday Night!
Regularly 69c. 25% silk
and wool. Vests with narrow non-slip straps; pants
with latex at waist and knee. Flesh color. Small,
medium and large sizes.
First Floor, 8th Street.

“Remember Spain and Vote Like Maine!” is Plea of Vice-President of Nat'l G. O. P.

Continued from Page One

ident of the Bucks County Council of Republican Women, who presided at the two meetings, was re-elected to that office. Appreciating her ability in such capacity, her gracious and charming manner as a leader of women, the gathering warmly expressed gratification over her re-election. Others chosen to office, yesterday, while Miss Eleanor D. Worthington, Hartsville, occupied the chair, were: Honorary president, Mrs. William C. Ryan, Doylestown; honorary vice-president, Mrs. Henry E. Ancker, Bristol; vice-president, upper district, Mrs. Elmer E. Althouse, Sellersville; vice-president, middle district, Mrs. Horace G. Reeder, Newtown; vice president, lower district, Mrs. George G. Parr, Andalusia; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Carlisle Hobensack, Doylestown; recording secretary, Mrs. Howard Kooker, Jr., Quakertown; treasurer, Mrs. Horace A. Effrig, Newtown; assistant treasurer, Mrs. Franklin J. Linton, Newtown.

Mrs. Cooper, in welcoming the group to the morning session, told of the hope manifest and courage shown by the Bucks County women, as they are working "to bring about a change." The president expressed appreciation of the work of the past eight years of Mrs. Joseph Palmer, Langhorne, the retiring secretary. "She has been a guiding hand; an ever-present help." Treasurer's report was presented by Mrs. Horace Effrig, Newtown. Various committees were named by Mrs. Cooper.

Theodore Gardner, Emaus, who delivered the message during the morning hours, said that women are more interested in this election than in any election in the past. "That is because women are the economists of the family. You all are wondering what will happen when living costs exceed your husbands' incomes." Then the speaker dwelt for a period on increased costs of living. Then the remark: "I cannot concur in huge expenditures of funds in the name of relief with the prime motive of building a top-heavy machine with a view to putting their motives across." Relief costs cited were $65 on a per capita basis for the entire population of the United States. "And unemployment and relief rolls are mounting. The United States Department of Labor is the body from which I secure my report on unemployment figures. The government makes the worthy unemployed find places on relief rolls before getting work on a project. Just as soon as we do away with such a system will employment conditions improve. President Roosevelt poses as a friend of the man with a small wage, but he has brought about a huge increase in food, an increase of 44 percent in clothes costs, etc. And these increased costs were brought about by a program of destruction and non-production which resulted in scarcity and therefore increase in prices."

Taking up another phase of conditions within the country, Mr. Gardner stated that "In Philadelphia, ships of cement have come 4,000 miles, while only 60 miles from Philadelphia, in the Lehigh Valley, the supply can be found. Our business people cannot compete with 'coolie' labor. We need a complete change in our national administration." The gigantic increase in shipments of foreign-made hosiery into this country was told of. "And everywhere we find dissatisfaction on the part of employees because the employer, minus good markets, cannot pay the wages the employees have been accustomed to receiving in the past." The need for charity to start at home was spoken of. Repeal of reciprocal trade agreements was advocated. "Without industry we cannot exist," cautioned Mr. Gardner. "We must look to the good of industries and farmers in America, and until we do that we cannot have prosperity in America."

A typical case cited by Mrs. Cooper involved an acquaintance who purchased a small property at $400, with interest at six per cent. Unable to pay the interest, a loan was sought through the HOLC. "The HOLC representatives advanced a loan of $1195.65. The Democrats seem to know to the penny just how much a property is worth. There are numerous cases with 45c and 58c and 14c, and other odd amounts attached to the price. This said individual was told he would be given a job as a truck driver and the necessary sums taken from his pay envelope, which proved to be the case. . . . And we also find seven of the 12 sheriff sales on one day last month in Bucks County were HOLC sales. Yet the Democrats formerly cried that sheriff sales were numerous under Republican regime."

Assemblyman Yeakel stated that in seeking re-election he has the best interests of the people at heart. "I realize each time I seek election the responsibility I owe you." Then he added that with the powers now in (Harrisburg) "we are at times confronted with such things that would put any man's boast of valor to a test." The group that "works for the Commonwealth with one hand, and with the other hand pulls relief wires" was denounced. "Vote the straight Republican ticket in November, and you'll have no grounds for complaint."

Thomas B. Stockham, Morrisville, who likewise seeks re-election as an assemblyman from this district, announced that "Maine has set the way in spite of the millions of dollars spent there. The people of that State are staunch Americans. We're coming face to face with the serious realities. Let's meet them as we should. And beware of the insidious things being said about our party leaders." The situation at Washington was charged by Mr. Stockham as being "so un-Godly it is driving out everything we stand for. We are all judged by the company we keep. And no matter what denials the New Deal makes, look at the company it keeps." Then he mentioned, "We could have saved one-half of our huge tax bill those people have cost us if the money was expended properly." It was told by the speaker that industries hold back in Pennsylvania because of taxes and threat of more taxes. "And in our nation we find money dumped into all thinly-populated States at the sacrifice of the industrial East."

The time of the Christian martyrs was recalled by the Morrisville man. "And even today we find Christian groups and leaders slaughtered abroad for the sake of Communism. . . . Who that stands for real Americanism is going to stand for Roosevelt or any of the rest of them as a dictator?"

Motion pictures dealing with special phases of the issues of the present campaign were shown at the start of the afternoon meeting by Oscar O. Bean. High rate of taxes was vividly brought out, and the films proved a great force in showing up the "crackpot, share-the-wealth plan." In ending the film-speaker made a plea to all to "Hold the right to earn, and own, and enjoy the things we hold dear."

Mrs. John Hampton Barnes, Philadelphia, stressed the need of securing the American union. The besetting sin of the New Deal was charged to be hatred. "It is true many adjustments need to be made, but few in America would exchange their citizenship for the place of a foreigner, and be subjected to coolie labor."

The flood of vicious propaganda being placed in circulation by the New Dealers was told of by Mrs. Edna R. Carroll. "I want to tell you of a man I know who was asked about the New Deal. He said 'It suits me. I wanted beer and I got it; I wanted work and I got on the WPA list. What do I care about the cost, for I had any money anyway.'" The plan being made to distribute thousands of market bags to Philadelphia women, on which bags will be plainly shown the increase in food costs since 1932, was mentioned. "It will help to make all more tax-conscious," Mrs. Carroll told that "Communism comes about by weakening of government. It doesn't come to the polls to be voted upon. In the past 42 years the most insidious form of work has been done in Washington to undermine our form of government. They have set up a machine such as has never been seen before to garner votes. Then we are told by many that it takes more than four years to overthrow a government, and it can best be done with Roosevelt in the White House."

I like to think of our women working in a crusade to rid our country of the New Dealers." Then turning thoughts to the Civil War with the cry, "We are coming, Father Abraham, one hundred thousand strong," Mrs. Carroll paraphrased such to meet present times. "Pennsylvania saved the union then, and Pennsylvania will save the union now."

One of the original group which started the formation of the Pennsylvania Council of Republican Women 16 years ago, Mrs. Worthington Scranton, vice-president of the Republican National Committee, the highest party honor which can be conferred upon a woman, told that the membership in this state today is 22,000. "Upon your shoulders," she told the gathering, "lies the most important job of anybody in this campaign. Here in Pennsylvania we have something tremendously important to do—to send to Washington and Harrisburg men who are real Americans; men who will not be rubber stamps or New Dealers." Stating that she is frequently asked "How do things look?" Mrs. Scranton laughingly gave her answer "They look fine, and I mean it." Then she added "The country is aroused. I wouldn't admit the people of this state would sell their votes for money. With all the WPA debauchery I don't even believe votes of real American people can be sold." Continuing the speaker asked that each woman put forth what reserve energy she has. "Each of you have more influence than you realize. Urge others to cast their ballot on November 3rd, and don't take it all out in sun-flowers and enthusiasm."

The first meeting of Landon and Knox on the steps of the capitol at Topeka was told of by Mrs. Scranton who in her official capacity was a member of the party. "Anybody can tell they are two real Americans whom we are proud to have as standard bearers for the fight. . . . And when we went into Governor Landon's office all of Topeka went in with us. And everybody seems to call him 'Alf.'" Mrs. Landon was described by her guest, Mrs. Scranton, as "a typical American mother in a typical American home. And when she is in the White House she will be in the White House," she added to the amusement of the assemblage.

Regarding the November election the speaker had this to say: "We want Bucks County to have a majority such as it has never had before, to make up for the counties where WPA has made inroads."

Delegates named to the state convention in Harrisburg next month were the following: Mrs. Joseph Palmer, Langhorne; Mrs. C. Wilson Roberts, Southampton; Mrs. William J. Leattor, Mrs. Helen Thomas, Doylestown; Mrs. George Garretson, Edgely; and Mrs. Cooper.

Other numbers on the program of the day included: Report on state legislative activities, Mrs. William Hunsicker, Perkasie; account of the 74th Congress, Mrs. J. Harry Hoffman, who mentioned the appropriations totalling $19,296,187.373; report of Mrs. A. Oscar Martin, on the membership drive, with prize of $5 awarded to Mrs. Wilson Yeakel, Perkasie, who secured 10 new members; report of $3175 received in the Dollar Certificate Campaign up to one week ago, by Miss Eleanor D. Worthington, chairman of the work in the county. "Our quota was $2825," added Miss Worthington, and we expect to reach $5,000. Bucks County was the second county in the state to reach its quota."

Vocal numbers were pleasingly given by Mrs. Robert Anderson, with Mrs. James Kleck as accompanist. Both are Morrisville residents.

Directors appointed yesterday by Mrs. Cooper include: Mrs. Clarence J. Buckman, Langhorne; Mrs. Calvin S. Boyer, Mrs. Oscar O. Bean, Doylestown; Mrs. Fred W. Beans, Yardley; Miss Emily E. Bracken, Bristol; Mrs. Frank E. Braker, Morrisville; Miss Anna Darrah, Hartsville; Mrs. Harry Frederick, Croydon; Mrs. Carolyn A. Gillinder, Richboro; Miss Margaret R. Grundy, Bristol; Mrs. Frank J. Geritzki, Doylestown; Mrs. Elwood H. Harrar, Chalfont; Mrs. J. Harry Hoffman, Doylestown; Mrs. W. O. Hunsicker, Perkasie; Mrs. W. J. Leattor, Mrs. A. Oscar Martin, Doylestown; Mrs. Joseph Palmer, Langhorne; Mrs. Albert W. Preston, Solebury; Mrs. C. Wilson Roberts, Southampton; Mrs. Thomas B. Stockham, Morrisville; Mrs. Arthur Stover, Blooming Glen; Mrs. Charles Thatcher, Quakertown; Mrs. A. Russell Thomas, Doylestown; Mrs. William Tinsman, Lumberville; Mrs. Theodore J. Yochum, Quakertown.

Al. Smith Hits the Farm Program of New Dealers

Continued from Page One

over the borders of this State of so-called bootleg coal.

"Now several of these men have been indicted and the language of the indictment says that the law-enforcement officers did nothing about it. I will say that if that had happened in the State of New York there would be grounds for the impeachment of the Governor."

"Since I made my mind up to take this now famous walk, there has been a lot said about it. I think I have a distinguished precedent for my attitude, and it happened just 40 years ago—when a distinguished American President decided to take a walk when Bryan was nominated."

"But," Smith shouted, "Cleveland at least knew where Bryan was going, because he put it in his platform. But I am in the position of having handed to me a Democratic dish that contains large chunks of the Socialist platform."

"During the rest of the campaign I proposed to develop the reasons why I took my walk. Tonight I will talk about the abandonment of the Democratic platform by the so-called Democratic Party which is really the New Deal.

"The 1932 Democratic platform was the greatest party platform drawn in the memory of living persons. But there have only been two planks in it that were lived up to—the securities law regulating the stock exchange. Everybody was for that. It hasn't been passed on by the Supreme Court. The other plank was the repeal of prohibition. I had something to do with that."

"Never have I seen such a violation of the letter, spirit and word of a platform. Why, I tell you what I would have done. If I had known that I was going to get the platform of Norman Thomas instead of the platform of the Democratic Party, I would have done something for Hoover in 1932 that he didn't do for me. I would have voted for him."

"Sad for me as Democrat, sad indeed, is the fact that the Democratic Party, when it was taken over by the New Deal, repudiated its promise to people and betrayed the fundamentals on which the party was built."

"Now when I go back to New York don't think that I go to the Republican headquarters. I have no use for them. I go among Democrats. And a lot of the Democrats say that even if the platform has been repudiated they will go along with the party anyway. Well, what's the use of having platforms? Everybody knows that 1932 platform was thrown out the window."

"I see I will have time tonight to take up only a couple of the Democratic planks. I want to talk about the farm plank. Now the Democrats promised to do whatever they could within the four walls of the Constitution to raise the income of the farmer. That sounded good. The farmer was led up to the mountain top and showed the world below. Great speeches were made about that plank. And what happened? The brain trusters got together and drew up the triple A. What became of the platform promise? Out the window!"

"The fundamental principle of States' rights was violated and the Supreme Court said so. The AAA was that a colossal flop, but what about the effect it had on other problems—unemployment, for instance? When the acres were taken out of production there were men out of work."

"Well, after the AAA there came the Bankhead Cotton Law and the Potato Control Law. So what happened to them? They were repealed on the recommendation of the President because he knew that what happened to the AAA would happen to them."

"Now the Democratic platform wanted to allow the farmer to sell his surplus products abroad. After the AAA got through there weren't enough farm products to feed the American market."

"Not only was the American farmer cut off from world markets but the flood of imports from other countries—to compete with the American farmer's goods—was fantastic. Wheat that should have been bought from our farmers was imported. That's what happened when the Democratic Party forgot its platform promise to follow some crack-pot theory."

"Let me tell you what was said in New York in the last three days. It was, 'I favor creating instead of destroying a market for American farm products.' The man who said that is the Republican candidate for Governor of New York. Ain't it a fine thing to be a Democrat in New York and hear Republicans saying things your party ought to be saying? I've seen the time when I would jump on a Republican for anything he said. But I can't do it this year."

Smith mentioned the cost of living and said that pork chops were selling for 34 cents a pound.

"Forty-five" yelled a man in the gallery.

"You're adding on the local tax," Smith yelled back.

"Now there is another platform plank I want to talk about. That is the one that pledged the abolition and consolidation of useless agencies of government. There was a headline in a New York newspaper the other day that said President Roosevelt was studying plans to consolidate bureaus. That's the bunk."

"Don't you have any fear of being accused of walking out of the party. It's far different—the party has walked away from you."

To Erect Bleachers On High School Field

Continued from Page One

astic and collegiate football official.

Mr. Stepp told about the set of qualifications that go to make a good athlete, dwelling on each one in some detail. His qualifications include: brains, co-ordination, perseverance, determination, health, courage, strength and sportsmanship.

Mr. Erb, spoke very highly of the enthusiasm shown by the Fathers' Association and urged the group to continue their fine work. Erb also explained some of the new rules in football this season. He pointed out that the greatest difficulty that football officials experience in handling a football game come from the spectators. He explained this by saying, "because of their ignorance of the rules they cannot know when a good decision has been rendered. And of all them women are the worst offenders."

The November meeting of the Association will be comprised of an amateur night. The contestants will be limited by trials and the meeting will be open to the members of the Association and their male friends.

Among the other guests at the meeting last night were Coach Dougherty and the High School football squad.

EDGELY

Mr. and Mrs. William Reynolds spent Sunday in Trenton, N. J., visiting friends.

Mrs. Herman Michel, Sr., entered ained Mr. and Mrs. Herman Michel, Jr., Miss Betty Wiggins, Morrisville; and Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Greenhalge, Philadelphia, Sunday.

HULMEVILLE

Mrs. James Tracy entertained at cards at her home on Wednesday afternoon.

LEGAL

ESTATE NOTICE

Estate of Elizabeth A. King, deceased, late of the Township of Bristol, County of Bucks, Pennsylvania.

Letters of Administration on the above estate have been granted to the undersigned, who requests all persons having claims or demands against the estate of the above named decedent, to make known the same, and all persons indebted to the decedent to make payment without delay to

J. MILNOR KING,

Administrator,

Edgely, Pennsylvania.

Or to his attorney,

I. LOUIS RUBIN, Esq.,

327 Mill Street, Bristol, Pa.

9-18-6tow

ESTATE NOTICE

Estate of Jesse Jones, deceased, late of the Township of Bristol, County of Bucks, Pennsylvania.

Letters of Administration on the above estate have been granted to the undersigned, who requests all persons having claims or demands against the estate of the above named decedent to make known the same, and all persons indebted to the decedent to make payment without delay to

VIOLA ALEXANDER,

Administratrix,

Bristol Pike, Bristol, Pa.

Or to her attorney,

I. LOUIS RUBIN, Esq.,

327 Mill Street, Bristol, Pa.

9-18-6tow

NOTICE

There is a mistake in putting my name in connection with the sheriff sale of the Wright Estate. I have not been connected financially with that firm for 12 years. I am indebted to no one.

JESSIE W. ROBERTS.

Z-10-9-1t

Real Estate for Rent

Houses for Rent

575 SWAIN ST.—7 room frame dwelling. All modern conveniences. Write Box 359, Courier Office.

Real Estate for Sale

Houses for Sale

BEAUTIFUL 6 ROOM HOUSE—Bristol Pike, Eddington. This house has all modern conv., tile bath, tile kitchen, hot-water heat, lot 46x196. Sacrifice sale for mortgage. Building cost was $7,250; now $5,000. Will finance. Possession at once. Apply Charles LaPolla, 1418 Farragut avenue.

Classified Advertising Department

Announcements

Deaths

BORNECE—At Bristol, Pa., October 7, 1936, Angelina, wife of Antonio Bornece. Relatives and friends are invited to the funeral from her late residence, 420 Lafayette St., Bristol, Saturday morning at 9:00. High Mass in St. Ann's Church at 10:00. Interment in St. Mark's Cemetery.

PERRI—At Philadelphia, Pa., October 6, 1936, Micheline, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Guido Perri. Relatives and friends are invited to attend the funeral from her late residence, 904 Spring St., Bristol, Saturday morning at 8 o'clock. High Mass in St. Ann's Church at 9 o'clock. Interment in St. Mark's Cemetery.

Funeral Directors

UNDERTAKER—William I. Murphy, Estate, 319 Jefferson avenue, Bristol, Pa., phone 2417

Personals

WOMAN—To share good home with widow in a residential location of Bristol. Write Box 368, Courier Off.

Automotive

Automobiles for Sale

USED CARS—

'36 Chev. Tu. Sedan, slightly used
'36 Chev. Tu. Sedan, demonstrator.
'35 Chev. Coach, $450.
'33 Chev. Coach, $350.
'33 Chev. Coupe, $350.
'30 Chev. Coach, $175.
'30 Chev. Sport Coupe, $125.
'29 Oldsmobile Sport Coupe, $60.
'29 Chrysler 70 Sedan, $70.
'31 Ford Sport Coupe, $150.

METTING CHEVROLET, INC.
Phone Langhorne 30

'33 PONTIAC SEDAN—4 door. Sacrifice. Mrs. Griffin, 36 Walsh avenue, Langhorne, Pa.

'31 WILLYS SEDAN—$35 takes it. Lawrence Russo, 1811 Farragut avenue, rear apartment.

Auto Accessories, Tires, Parts

USED TIRES—Tubes, batteries and rims. Joe's Tire Shop, 317 Walnut street.

Business Service

Business Services Offered

PAPERHANGING—Rooms from $3.50 up. J. T. Hinchliffe, Bristol R. F. D. No. 2. Phone 3059.

WE REMOVE DEAD ANIMALS—24-hour service. Why give them away? We buy them. Jersey Rendering Co., call Trenton 22931.

PAINTING—Interior and exterior. Reasonable price. William Hayes, 314 Wood St. Phone 2621.

Building and Contracting

ELECTRICAL WORK—Motors and lighting, ranges, heaters. George P. Bailey, Bath Rd. Bristol. Dial 7125.

Heating, Plumbing, Roofing

TIN ROOFING—And spouting. Asbestos shingles and siding. James L. McGee Estate, call 2125.

Employment

Help Wanted—Female

GIRL OR WOMAN—For general housework. Write Box 367, Courier Office.

COLORADO WOMAN—As occasional housekeeper or nurse. Care of three children. Box 12, Croydon.

Help Wanted—Male

ROUTE SALESMEN—Handle Tendra, the new meat tenderizer. Saves cooking 25-50 per cent. Tendra Kitchens, P. O. 604, 9th St. Annex, Phila., Pa.

Merchandise

Articles for Sale

PIPELESS HEATER—Cheap. Phone Bristol 2773.

USED ELECTRIC STOVE—Phone Bristol 3043.

RANGES—2, from Harriman houses. $12 cash. Walter F. Leedom, 254 Radcliffe street.

Fuel, Feed, Fertilizers

COAL—Egg, stove and nut, $8 ton; pea, $7.25; buckwheat, $6. M. Houser, Bath Rd. Dial Bristol 2676.

BUCKWHEAT COAL BLOWER—Will take care of large boilers. J. A. Moyer, Radcliffe St. & Green Lane.

Good Things to Eat

CIDER MILL—Open every Saturday beginning Oct. 10. Heaven's Cider Mill, Fallington, Pa.

Real Estate for Rent

Apartments and Flats

FURNISHED APARTMENT—Three rooms and private bath. Heat included. Apply 242 Mill street.

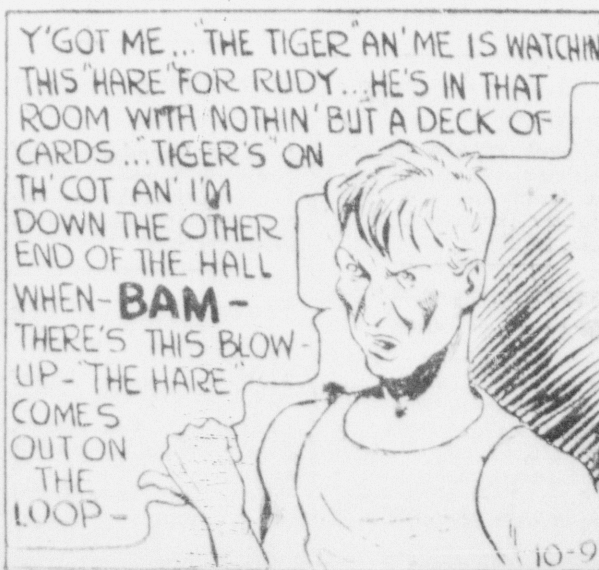

APARTMENT—Four rooms, all conveniences. Private bath. Mrs. Douglas, 624 Wood street.

Houses for Rent

427 BUCKLEY ST.—Hot water heat, all conven. Mrs. C. A. Barrett, 334 Radcliffe street.

DWELLING ON RADCLIFFE ST.—8 rooms and bath, all conveniences, extremely desirable. rent $50. . . . Dwelling on Radcliffe St., Edgely, 6 rooms, bath, garage, all conveniences, rent $35. . . . Fine dwelling in Bath Road section, 6 rooms, bath, all conveniences, three enclosed porches, entirely remodelled garage, workshop, chicken-house, large lot, rent $35. . . . Francis J. Byers, 409 Radcliffe street.

Radio Patrol

EDDIE SULLIVAN and CHARLIE SCHMIDT

In a Personal Way

INTERESTING bits of news mainly about people you know. A chronicle of the activities of the people of Bristol; their goings and comings. : : :

Events for Tonight

Pinochle and "radio" party in Lenig Cabin, Andalusia, by Mothers Auxiliary.
Card party in Hulmeville Fire Company station, benefit of company.
Card party by Bristol Council, No. 58, Daughters of America, in P. A. hall.
Card party in Dick's Hall, Edgely, by Ladies' Auxiliary of Headley Manor Fire Company.

HONORED BY FRIENDS

Mrs. Anna Wilkinson, Pond street, entertained relatives and friends at a dinner party on Sunday in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Wilkinson, Jackson street, who were recently married. Guests were: Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Wilkinson and Miss Theresa Dennen, Jackson street, Miss Ann Kennedy, and Mrs. Katharine White and family, Lafayette street, Joseph Wilkinson, Sr., Pond street, Thomas Stake, Tullytown, Mr. and Mrs. Harry White, Burlington, N. J., Mr. and Mrs. Carl Winch and daughter Peggy Ann, Trenton, N. J., Mr. and Mrs. Jack Delaney and family, Mayfair. Cards were enjoyed in the evening.

GUESTS HERE

Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Jackson, Philadelphia, spent the week-end with their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Zellner, Wilson avenue.

Mrs. Arthur Hagerman, Jersey City, was a Tuesday guest of Mr. and Mrs. William White, 219 Jackson street.

Mrs. I. Hurd, Jenkintown, is visiting her mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Lawrence, Radcliffe street.

Mr. and Mrs. William Prinold and daughters, Doris and Wilma, Langhorne, and Mrs. Edna Bale, Morrisville, were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. George Pollard, Wilson avenue.

Mrs. Etta McCarron and daughter, Alice, Brooklyn, N. Y., were week-end guests of Miss Mary Doyle, Otter street.

RETURN FROM HOSPITAL

Mrs. Elmer Sherman and baby, who were patients in the Germantown Hospital, returned to their home on Locust street.

William Wildman, who has been in the Women's Medical Hospital, Philadelphia, for two weeks receiving treatment, returned to his home on Locust street on Wednesday.

VISIT RELATIVES

Mr. and Mrs. George Wiedeman and daughters, Edith Louise and Martha Jean, Maple Beach, were Sunday guests of their relatives, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. McBride, Great Kills, Staten Island.

GUESTS OF FRIENDS

Miss Dorothy White, Walnut street, and Andrew Sitko, Frankford, spent Saturday in Long Island with friends.

ON VISIT IN JERSEY CITY

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Mauer, Trenton, N. J., and Mrs. Ethel Hayden, Walnut street, spent Saturday and Sunday in Jersey City, N. J., visiting relatives.

ENJOY VISITS

Mrs. Marvel Durham, Pond street, spent the latter part of the week with friends in Mt. Holly, N. J. Mr. P. Focosi, Philadelphia, spent several days this week with his son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Marvel Durham.

TAKING UP PROFESSION

Miss Phyllis Wischer, Dorrance street, has entered Wilford Academy, Philadelphia, where she is taking a course in hairdressing.

ENROLLS IN UNIVERSITY

Miss Margaret Neill, 613 Beaver street, has enrolled as a student in the evening class at the University of Pennsylvania.

VISITS RELATIVES

Miss Gwendolyn Hayden, Walnut street, spent Sunday in Frankford, visiting relatives.

GOES TO ST. LOUIS

Miss Emily Landreth, 1024 Radcliffe street, left Thursday for St. Louis, Mo., where she will visit her relative, Mrs. O. J. Barker. Miss Landreth and Mrs. Barker will leave shortly for Winter Park, Florida, where they will spend the winter months.

Three Weeks Required To Clean Up Battles

Continued from Page One

La Calzada to Oropesa where that grand old castle stood up against the skyline and gave me a chance to tell my companions about the classic battle I had witnessed there between the Legion in the castle towers and a Red armored train down there on the railroad.

Furthermore the roadside had been cleaned up all the way to Talavera de la Reina. The corpses which had littered the fields and ditches were all gone but a few outstanding old timers which I recognized from the previous trip. However, there was a fresh lot, much more numerous further along. It takes on the whole about three weeks for the army to get around to dusting off the landscape and tidying up, and it will be a very long time before the Spanish landscape is ready to receive visitors.

The signs of active warfare increased as we approached Talavera. The Reds had depended heavily on defending this most important step on the road to Madrid, and this is the first place I saw genuine trenches with barbed wire entanglements. The trenches were already provided by deep irrigation ditches outside Talavera and fronting towards the east whence the Whites were attacking.

Talavera is a much bigger town than any along this route since Caceres, and I was surprised to find that despite the heavy fighting which had cost according to White estimates, over 2,000 Red dead, there were so few signs of damage and looting in the city itself. The streets, however, were jammed with Madrid autobuses, at least 100 of them, seized from the Reds. This war is being fought on both sides with the ordinary lowly countryside autobus as the principal means of conveyance for the troops.

Red Cross Volunteers Prepare For Roll Call

Continued from Page One

bership dues, paid by billions of Americans in past years, which enabled the Red Cross to be organized and ready to step in and give immediate help, without waiting for money to be raised.

"Gifts made for disaster relief last Spring were used entirely for that purpose and not one penny of those funds was used for the support of the local Chapter nor for the routine work of the national organization.

"Our Southeastern Pennsylvania Chapter, the largest in the United States, both in number of members and in area, must have generous support this fall to continue without curtailment, its regular programs of instruction in first aid and life saving, public health nursing, assistance to war-disabled veterans; production of garments for needy families; the printing of books in Braille for the blind and other services."

Man of Average Family Had To Work 34.31 Days Just To Pay His Tax Bill

Continued from Page One

year.) Any surplus which might have been saved has been eaten up in taxes. It is impossible for my children to go to college unless they can earn their own way.

"I do not believe that the average man or woman who doesn't pay very much income or property tax realizes that he does pay as much per dollar purchase for his food and clothing as does the rich man.

"For this reason, all those who are not fortunate enough to be rich, that is the majority of the people, should take as much interest in their government and the men who represent them at Washington and in the State and city governments as do the rich, for the bulk of the taxes are paid by the average citizen and not the rich.

Andalusia Girl Scouts Change Their Party Date

Continued from Page One

evening was a "Nature What" in which many of the members participated. The subject dealt with the stars and heavens.

Work on signaling was also done Tuesday evening, and there was a short discussion of the court of honor.

Reports on the drive in the sale of Christmas cards by the group indicated that double the sales have already been made than were expected. Proceeds are to be used for scouting equipment and other items of the troop.

A report was also heard on the seven girls who made the week-end camping trip on the Morrell Estate, the trip being voted by its participants a wonderful success. Those who made the trip included: E. May Early, Captain, Ethel Hartman, Lieutenant, Jeanne Stackhouse, Renee Wendkos,

Marie Still, Dorothy Ferguson, and Margaret Pickersgill.

Announcement was also made that two members of the troop committee, Mrs. William Still and Mrs. George Bloech, will act as aides to the tenderfoot girl scouts of the troop. Following the business session a number of folk dances were enjoyed by the scouts.

Those attending the meeting were: E. May Early, Ethel Hartman, Jeanne Stackhouse, Dolly Ferguson, Lois Lange, Jane Pedrick, Margaret Pickersgill, Marie Still, Muriel Hornick, Renee Wendkos, Gladys Cragg, Elizabeth Anderson, Mary Reichert, Betty Rahn, Pauline Fries, Helen Still, Gloria Fries, Doris Hibbs, Clara Fries, Joan Hicks, Ada Pickersgill, Beatrice Fries, and Margaret Armstrong.

The Stenotype

which was used to report the Democratic National Convention, is taught at Strayer's Business School. Harry Foster, the Convention Stenotype Reporter for the United Press, learned at Strayer's. Strayer's Business School now has 250 Stenotype students, but can take a few more, day or evening. Charges moderate.

Strayer's Business School
807 Chestnut St., Phila. Lombard 9854

DR. JULIUS SOBEL

Osteopathic Physician
ANNOUNCES THE OPENING OF HIS OFFICE
Telephone 2981 for Appointment
413 MILL STREET
Over Haps Store

WHEN IN NEED OF AUTO INSURANCE Compensation, Fire

Or Any Other Form of Insurance

—CALL—

DANIEL M. MYERS

626 Wood Street, Bristol

Agent for Penna. Threshermen & Farmers' Mutual Casualty Ins. Co.

GRAND LAST TIMES TONIGHT

FRED MacMURRAY in
'TEXAS RANGERS'

With JACK OAKIE and ALL-STAR CAST
Silly Symphony Cartoon, "Three Little Wolves"

—Coming Saturday—

BARTON MacLANE in "JAIL-BREAK"

YARDLEY

Morris Okum and son, David Okum, motored to New York City, where they attended the games of the World Series between the Giants and the Yankees.

Harvey Funk is attending a meeting of the Chevrolet dealers in New York City.

Mrs. Ruth Fetter left Yardley today to attend the convention of the postmasters, in Pittsburgh.

Miss Esther Yardley, who is teaching in Pottsville, was a recent guest of her father, William R. Yardley, Sr.

Miss Florence Duerr and Miss Catherine Ayres, Haddonfield, N. J., were recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Duerr.

Miss Marjorie Cadwallader's Sunday School Class members were entertained at the home of Virena Bennett when plans were made to participate in the church anniversary week.

Be Wise and Get Low Cost Fire Protection . . . . .

A ROARING blaze . . . a blackened, ruined building. At such time, your policy, alone, stands between you and a heavy loss!

By insuring your property and possessions with us you obtain security that has been fire tested for 25 years.

We represent the strongest stock insurance companies in this territory and can place fire insurance at the lowest possible rates.

Francis J. Byers

Real Estate and Insurance

409 Radcliffe St.

Phone 2000

PERSONAL LOANS WITHOUT SECURITY

No plan so simple as our single signature note which provides up to $300 without security or endorsers.

IDEAL FINANCING ASSOCIATION, Inc.
Mill and Wood Sts. Over McCarty's
BRISTOL
Dial 517 Open Friday from 7 to 9 P.M.

BUSINESS FUNERAL DIRECTOR

No Charge for Use of Funeral Home
HARVEY S. RUE EST.
FUNERAL DIRECTORS
314 CEDAR ST. PHONE 617
Robert C. Ruehl, Suc.

PHILA. EXPRESS

DAILY TRIPS
FARRUGGIO'S EXPRESS
901 MANSION ST. DIAL 2953
Philadelphia: 7 N. Front St.
Phone Market 2548

Now is the Time to Start Paying For the Finest Gift for Father, Husband or Sweetheart for Christmas

—the—
SCHICK DRY SHAVER

Pay Small Weekly Payments And Have It For Christmas!

NORMAN'S
416 MILL STREET

FREE!

to every purchaser of

Dolly Leston SHOES

THIS BEAUTIFUL BATHROOM SCALE!

Free! ON FOLLOWING DAYS ONLY

FRIDAY - SATURDAY - MONDAY

Only On $5 Shoes

SIZES 1 to 12 — AAAA to EEE

La Belle Shoe Shop

308 MILL STREET

EXPERT FITTERS IN ATTENDANCE

FUR COATS

Smart New Models in This Season's Furs
Large Selection to Choose From at Moderate Prices

SPORT and DRESS COATS

Wonderful New Fabrics including Camels Hair and Plaid . . . Styles the Latest

$9.95 up to $65.00

LARGE CHOICE OF CHILDREN'S COATS
From $4.95 up

CHILDREN'S SKI SUITS, $2.95 UP

LADIES' FROCKS

Wool—Sport, Street or Evening Wear—Silk & Velvet
$2.98 up to $14.98

Smith's Model Shop

412 MILL STREET

COAL! :- COAL!

WHY BUY BOOTLEG COAL WHEN YOU CAN BUY

O'DONNELL BROS.

SELECTED ANTHRACITE COAL
AT REMARKABLY LOW CASH PRICES
STOVE . . $9.25 EGG . . $9.00 NUT . . $9.00
PEA . . $7.50 No. 1 BUCK . . $6.75
KOPPERS COKE . . . $9.75

SPECIAL! You Can Arrange With Us To Have Your Total Winter Supply of Coal Financed

ALL GRADES OF FUEL OIL, GASOLINE, KEROSENE
LUMBER, MILLWORK AND BUILDING SUPPLIES

O'DONNELL BROS., PHONE 614

TORNADOES READY TO TACKLE STRONG ELEVEN

The Bristol Tornadoes came out of their last game against Seymour in Philadelphia in great shape and are ready to tackle the strong Frankford Trojans at Landreth Field, Sunday.

A new face will be seen in Bristol's line-up when the great Chief Elkins, former All-American at Carlisle, and professional star with the New York Giants, will call the signals and do the punting for Dougherty's Club. Elkins is the second great Indian that made the All-American rating outside of Thorpe.

Faite Elkins, it will be remembered, was the only bare-foot kicker in professional ranks. The latter will sport a No. 1 Jersey, taking Charlie Rogers' place in the backfield.

A number of outstanding stars will be found in the visitors' line-up, including the great Sanderson from Columbia University, and Jacobs from Villanova. This club opened the season against Roebing Blue Centres this year and held them to a 6-0 score, so it looks like the Tornadoes will be in for another tough afternoon. The game is scheduled to get under way at 2:30 sharp.

It is the intention of the management to handle only local talent and it is believed that they will fare much better than the outside stars secured.

ANDALUSIA TO TACKLE UNBEATEN N. PHILA. A. C.

ANDALUSIA, Oct. 9.—After walloping Clearfield A. C. to the tune of 27-0, Joe Diamanti's proteges tackle the unbeaten North Philadelphia A. C., Sunday, October 11th, at 2:30 p. m.

The Green Wave will have to function on all cylinders, for besides giving away plenty of weight (20 pounds per man) the North Philadelphians have a collection of former high school and college stars and to date the Black and Gold have scored 72 points to their opponents' none.

The localites functioned quite smoothly last Sunday against the strong Clearfield A. C., and Captain P. Wilkins is rapidly getting into shape and is practically playing up to his last year's par when he led the green wave to an undefeated season and the Bucks County Championship.

"Dynamite" Joe Diamanti has had his boys out for practice every night this week, and by the looks of things the A. A. expects to play a wide-open game. Realizing the weight advantage the Andalusians will have to go into their bag of tricks to get into touchdown territory.

Manager Calvin Freas has announced to the players that if they get by North Philies, he will bring to Andalusia the outstanding teams of Philadelphia and Bucks County, such as: Dittman A. A., 1935 Pop Warner champions; Frankford Giants, Philadelphia colored champs; Cheltenham A. A., undefeated in 3 starts; St. Ann's of Bristol; and South Langhorne A. A. Of the above the Green and White defeated Frankford Giants and South Langhorne in 1935.

Indians To Tour Bucks County Schools

Continued from Page One

given his co-operation to the tour in order to make it possible for as many Bucks county school children as possible to see the Indians. All the high schools and grade schools in Bucks county will be visited. Rotary, Kiwanis and other service clubs are also visited.

Headquarters of the Indians will be established in Doylestown for a week. This is the first time in the history of the State of Pennsylvania that a group of Indians has been brought to the State for a tour, direct from a reservation.

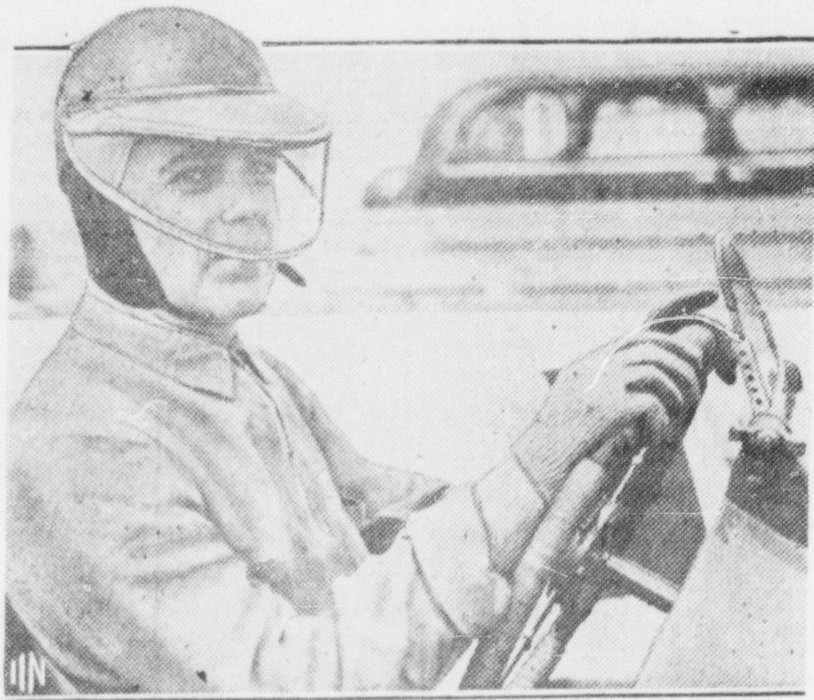

With the Indian tour party will be members of the following tribes: Oto, of Oklahoma; Sac Fox, Iowa; Chippewae, Minnesota; Omaha, of Nebraska; Winnebago, Wisconsin; Hopi, New Mexico; Cherokee, North Carolina; Cognawogna, Canada; Six Nations, of the eastern part of the United States, and the Sioux, of Arizona.

Elk River Indian Reservation, known as the "new home of the American Indians," is located three miles south of Elkton, Md., on Highway No. 40.

Two members of the Indian group include Chief Blow Snake, 83, of the Winnebago tribe, who once had considerable trouble with the White Man and who was engaged in actual combat. Chief White Horn will interpret the mysteries of the sign language.

"There is so little taught in our schools about the Indians who preceded the white man and who were located in every section of Bucks and

Lord in Speed Classic

Among European racing drivers, Lord Howe, English speed demon, is considered one of the best. He's shown at the wheel of his steel racing bullet which he will drive against the world's fastest racers in the Vanderbilt Cup speed classic over the new Roosevelt Raceway at Westbury, L. I.

adjoining counties, that the Indian tour idea was advanced as a bit of educational service," Mr. Tamargo told a reporter today.

The Indians have been visiting in Montgomery county for a week. At the present time the Indians are staying in Norristown.

All members of the Indian group will be dressed in their native costumes, and will perform ceremonial dances, render songs and exhibit art craft and handwork.

Warns of General Upheaval

London, Oct. 9.—A general European upheaval threatens unless the non-intervention policy in Spain is reached to the letter, Charles Corbis, Ambassador to France, warned today when members of the neutrality committee met to consider Soviet Russia's charges that Germany, Italy and Portugal have violated the pact.

In a tense but calm atmosphere, the 27 nations embodied on the committee, considered the situation for five hours, attempting to subject the crisis precipitated by Moscow.

Corbis spoke after Samuel Jagan, Soviet Charge d'Affaires, had risen to review in detail Russia's charges that Germany, Italian and Portuguese arms and ammunitions are going to the rebel side in Spain.

The French envoy expressed the gravity of the situation precipitated by Russia's threat to abandon neutrality unless such alleged violations ceased immediately. He pointed out the difficulties faced by the French government in the situation because of widespread leftists in that country, and urged strict adherence to the pact.

EDGELY

Ewald Caullwine entertained his quill club on Tuesday evening at his home. The evening was spent playing quills, and refreshments were served. Those present: William O'Dea, Russell Barton, George McEuen, and Mr. Caullwine. Sunday dinner guests of Mrs. Caullwine were Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Downing, Bristol.

Mrs. Bertha Parr has been ill at the home of Mrs. A. Haines for the past month.

Mrs. Roy Moon entertained Mrs. Emma Mutchler and Mrs. Margaret Huth at dinner on Thursday.

Mrs. Omar Hillborn has been ill for the past week.

Mrs. Ellie Stackhouse, Bristol, was a Thursday guest of Mrs. Fred Hibbs.

Mrs. A. Bustraan entertained relatives from Passaic, N. J., on Sunday.

Your Home Needs Complete Fire Insurance Protection!

Houses never go up as fast as they frequently burn up. And when a fire does start, you don't usually know it until it is too late. You cannot always discover a fire in time. You cannot always stop it. But you can avert financial loss by having your property insured in a strong stock fire insurance company.

Maybe you are already insured, but perhaps the value of your property has since increased. Is your present insurance sufficient to cover this increased value? We will gladly call and go over your insurance problems with you.

BLANCHE & BLANCHE

Agents

118 Mill Street, Bristol

Here You Are Ladies! Weller Pottery

Fine Decorated Ware That Will Look Good Anywhere In Your Home

Large Selection of Vases and Jardineres That Would Make Most Acceptable Gifts

50c to $1.75

SEE OUR DISPLAY IN THE WINDOW

J. S. LYNN

JEWELER and WATCHMAKER

OPTICIAN

Eyes Examined by Appointment

Specialty: Swiss Watch Repairing

312 Mill St.

Bristol

PRO-FOOTBALL

BRISTOL TORNADOES

—VERSUS—

FRANKFORD TROJANS

LANDRETH'S BALL PARK

SUNDAY, OCTOBER 11, 2:30

ADMISSION 35c

PLENTY OF SEATS

MARK GRANITE

ANNOUNCES THE OPENING OF HIS GENERAL STORE

IN NEWTOWN, BUCKS COUNTY, PENNA.

— WITH AN —

OLD-FASHIONED-COSTUME PARTY

— AND —

PERSONALITY CONTEST

To the People of Bucks County:

On October 17th (Saturday afternoon and evening, next week) I am opening my General Store in Newtown. Some of you may not have seen my previous announcement about this store so I am repeating here a few paragraphs of what I said before and then I'll add the details about the Old-Fashioned-Costume Party I'm going to hold Saturday evening, October 17th, and also about the Personality Contest the store is going to run to find out the three girls who have the nicest personalities of any in this county.

Besides the hundred dollar, fifty dollar and twenty-five dollar prizes we're going to give, I want to give one of these girls and maybe all three of them good positions in this store. But I'm getting ahead of my story — I am not much given to prophesy but, within the next two months, I hope to make it the best-known country store in America. The store will have four principal departments: First, groceries and provisions. I like good things to eat, and we're going to have a lot of them at this store, so I can sneak some home occasionally. Will probably be my own best customer, but I sort of hope some of you folks will drop in and buy some of them once in awhile. I'll make the prices as low as I possibly can for first-quality goods. Will make them a lot lower still after we get rid of these terrible Roosevelt taxes we're all suffering from now. It's getting so we're paying twenty or thirty cents for taxes on things, out of every dollar we spend. It's got to stop or we'll all be in the poor house.

The second department of this store will be books and magazines and such like. We aim to provide food for mind and body here. I've got some ideas about a book-store. There hasn't been much of any improvement in methods of selling books since the days when Benjamin Franklin ran one. In fact, they were better then, for most of them were run by personalities; now most of them are just tended by clerks. In most bookstores, there's such a jumble of books you can't see the forest for the trees. They confuse a person. It won't be so in this book-store. There will be, on shelves just like your home book-shelves, and in a place just like a living-room, the thousand best books ever written, as near as we can figure them out. They'll be all arranged according to times and subjects; you can see together in one place the two hundred best books ever written for children, the best novels ever written, and so on. We'll have twenty or thirty of the present best-sellers, just to show we aren't too old-fogy, and we'll get for you anything you want, whether you're given to murders or mush or star-gazing or the Decline and Fall of the Raw Deal. But you can bank on our regular stock being about the best books of their kind ever written, well-printed, honestly-bound, worth buying and reading and keeping.

Our third department will be home equipment, things for the kitchen, all sorts of things to make house-work easier and living pleasanter. But we shall not go into a complete hardware business. There are plenty of good hardware stores in Bucks County, including the one run by friendly John Burns next door to our place, which is the old Keller Building. We don't mean to compete with other stores very much, but we will give the chain-grocery-stores a real run for the money. We'd like to prove that an independent merchant can live and get a fair share of the trade, in competition with them. No grocery and provision store in Bucks County will sell things at lower prices than ours. By selling Bucks County products throughout the nation, we ought to bring a lot of money into the county, which will mean more money for a lot of folks to spend at other stores as well as at ours. And we hope to do a lot of advertising of Bucks County and attract a lot of strangers and visitors here, who will spend their money with other stores, too. And a lot of them may like the looks of Bucks County so much that they'll buy places and settle here. So, all in all, this store ought to help business here in every line. That is my hope and inclination.

Then there will be a fourth department that is going to be my special pride and joy. It is going to be a Department of Bucks County Products. And here's where you can help me a lot, and maybe the store will help Bucks County folks a lot; at least that's my plan and intention. Now I have an idea that this is the eatingest county in the United States. We know what good food is around here: we make it and we know it and we eat it. I want the people of this whole country to know and enjoy Bucks County products. I'm going to fix up what will be known from Maine to California as "BUCKS COUNTY BASKETS." They'll sell for two dollars and five dollars and ten dollars and they will be filled with glass jars full of vegetables and fruits, preserves and jams and jellies, scrapple, cookies, fruit cake, the best things we make and eat around here, all done up kind of fancy and appetizing. Lord, it makes me lick my chops just to write about it.—Well, there must be fifty or a hundred women in Bucks County, the best cooks ever, that would like to make some extra money right in their own homes and kitchens, from now on. I am also on the look-out for other kinds of Bucks County products, articles made out of wood or metal or cloth, toys, knit or embroidered things, anything suitable for gifts, home use, decorations, souvenirs of Bucks County, etc., etc.

THE OLD-FASHIONED-COSTUME PARTY

It occurred to me the other day that it would be particularly fitting to have folks come to the opening of this old-fashioned store in old-fashioned costumes. To make it a little more interesting for those who take the pains to come in such costumes I'll give prizes in the form of orders on the store for twenty-five dollars in goods for the best woman's costume, and twenty-five for the best man's costume, and a lot of orders for five dollars in goods for other costumes. There'll of course be coffee and ice cream and cake for all and sticks of candy big as barber poles for the youngsters. And by the way there'll be a special party for the children Saturday afternoon, the seventeenth, beginning at two P. M. The old folks' party will start around eight and continue till goodness knows when.

THE PERSONALITY CONTEST

I want some extra-smart, nice girls to work in the store and, sort of to learn about and locate a lot of these fine Bucks County products, I'm going to hold a Personality Contest. This will be a voting contest to determine who is the girl with the nicest personality of any in Bucks County—you know, the kind of girl you say is the nicest girl you ever met.

There will be a coupon given with every ten cents' worth of anything bought at Mark Granite's Gen'l Store on October 17th and from then on, to and including the 25th of November, the day before Thanksgiving. Send in these coupons with the name of your favorite girl on it—and the three girls who receive respectively, the highest, second highest and third highest number of votes, will be given prizes of $100, $50 and $25 in cash, respectively, and I shall offer one and maybe all three of the girls good positions in the store, one to act as hostess to make people feel sort of at home and to preside over serving the coffee at the store. (You see, we're always going to serve a good cup of coffee free to anyone and everyone who comes into the store). Just a sort of an idea of mine. It will go kind of nice these cold days this fall and winter.

There, that's about all, except I'll be glad to have everybody come that can, costume or not doesn't really matter. Those of us that don't dress up fancy will have a good time looking at those who do—and we call all do a little munching of this and that, on the side, and drinking a cup of real good coffee, if I do say it. I've got folks that know how to make it.

You'll be interested to know that many of the fixtures of this store were in use when Washington crossed the Delaware. Most of the other equipment dates back to the days when Abraham Lincoln kept a country store, a hundred years ago. (A picture of Lincoln as a young man hangs in the store and under it is this: "Abraham Lincoln ran a country store. He wasn't much of a money-maker, but he kept faith with his creditors and his customers. We aim to do the same. Mark Granite.")

This will be more than a place of business; it will be a moving picture of the Old General Store as the social, political and intellectual center of the community, an American institution that has made and here still will make a contribution to American life. You are cordially invited to come and visit with us.

MARK GRANITE.

TONIGHT—Friday, Oct. 9

FALL OPENING NIGHT

—at the—

GREAT LAKES TAVERN

Newportville Road, on Neshaminy (CROYDON)

Valuable Door Prize To The Lucky Lady

Orchestra and Dancing

Friday and Saturday Nights

Music Every Night With Our New & Beautiful Do-Re-Mi

PEPPER STEAK CHOW MEIN

DEVILED CRAB SPAGHETTI

PLATTERS — 25c